Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly, on the 23rd February, 1940:—

L. A. BILL No. 15 OF 1940.

A Bill further to amend the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; II of 1934.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Reserve Bank of India (Second Amendment) Act, 1940.

Amendment of section 4, Act II of 1934.

2. In section 4 of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, as adapted and modified in accordance with the Third Schedule to the India and Burma (Burma Monetary Arrangements) Order, 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), after sub-section (4) the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(4A) Without prejudice to the validity of any registration made before the commencement of the Reserve Bank of India (Second Amendment) Act, 1940, no person shall, after the commencement of that Act, be registered as a shareholder in respect of any shares held by him whether in his own name or jointly with another person or persons in excess of a total nominal value of twenty thousand rupees, or be entitled to payment of any dividend on such shares or to exercise any of the rights of a shareholder in respect of such shares otherwise than for the purpose of selling the shares."

*The Governor General has been pleased to give the previous sanction required by section 153 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the introduction in the Legislative Assembly of this Bill.

Amendment of section 56, Act 11 of 1934.

3. In sub-section (2) of section 56 of the said Act, after the words "registered in his name" the following words shall be inserted, namely:—

"or that any shareholder, to whom the provisions of sub-section (4A) of section 4 apply is the holder of shares in excess of a total nominal value of twenty thousand rupees".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The intention of the Legislature at the time of the passing of the Reserve Bank of India Act was that the shares of the Reserve Bank should be distributed as widely as possible so as to constitute an electorate for the Central Board of the Bank on a broad basis. The number of shareholders has however since the inception of the Bank declined by nearly 38 per cent. and at the same time a large proportion of the voting strength has become sterilised. The Reserve Bank have therefore reported the position to Government with the recommendation that the number of shares held by an individual should be restricted to a maximum of 200 shares and that no transfer should be registered in the name of any individual in excess of that amount. Government have accepted the necessity for legislation and propose by this Bill to amend the Reserve Bank of India Act to give effect to the Bank's recommendation.

C. W. GURNER, Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE BENGAL.

Dacca, the 26th March 1940.

Forecast of the Rabi Crops of Bengal for 1939-40.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1937-38, the area under summer rice in Bengal has represented some 0·6 per cent. of the total area under rice in India.)

Character of the season.—The rainfall in October was sufficient for the preparatory tillage and sowings of the crops commenced generally in the normal time. Dry weather in November proved helpful to the germination and growth of the crops, but the drought continuing up till the end of January affected the growth of the early crops to some extent. On the whole, the season has been a fairly satisfactory one.

Acreage.—The normal area under the different rabi crops dealt with in this forecast is estimated at 3,706,400 acres. The area actually sown this year is reported to be 3,416,900 acres as against 3,524,200 acres last year. Of this the area under summer rice is reported to be 417,700 acres as against 425,100 acres last year and that under tobacco is 316,600 acres as against 316,000 acres last year.

Outturn.—According to the District Officers' estimates, the average outturn of the different rabi crops for the province, as a whole, works out at 80 per cent. of the normal as against 81 per cent. last year, the outturn for the more important rabi districts being as follows:—

Mymensingh 100, Dacca 86, Rangpur 79, Murshidabad 71, Faridpur 68, Pabna 69, Noakhali 72, Rajshahi 74, Bakarganj 89, Tippera 80, Nadia 76, Jalpaiguri 89, Malda 80 and Bogra 60 per cent. of the normal.

Summer rice and tobacco crops.—The outturn of summer (boro) rice, according to the District Officers' estimates is 88 per cent. of the normal as against 90 per cent. last year. The gross yield of the crop for the province on a basis of the normal yield of 14⅛ maunds of clean rice per acre is estimated at 193,500 tons this year as against 201,400 tons last year.

The outturn of tobacco crop is estimated at 81 per cent. of the normal as against 84 per cent. last year. Taking 13½ maunds as the normal yield of the crop per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province this year is estimated at 127,200 tons as against 131,600 tons last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

From—A. Frederick, Esq., M.I.FIRE E., Chief Officer, Fire Brigade, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Department of Public Health and Local Self-Government (Municipal).

(Through C. E. S. Fairweather, Esq., M.A., C.I.E., J.P., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta.)

I have the honour to submit the following report on the working of the Calcutta Fire Brigade for the year ending 31st March 1939. The work of the department throughout the year has been normal.

Financial statement.—The statement of receipts and expenditure and payments made by the municipalities within the jurisdiction of the Fire Brigade and Licensed Warehouse Act I of 1893 is given in appendix I.

The cost of maintenance of the Fire Brigade is contributed by (a) the Calcutta Municipality, (b) the Howrah Municipality and (c) the Garden Reach Municipality at the rate of 83·5 per cent., 14 per cent. and 2·5 per cent., respectively.

Fees for licensed warehouses are charged under section 10 of the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I of 1893, and are levied at 10 per cent. of the annual valuation of warehouses, subject to a maximum of Rs. 1,500 per warehouse per annum, and the income thus derived provides the 50 per cent. of the cost of the upkeep of the Fire Brigade under the Act.

The actual number of fires attended was 432 which shows a decrease of 23 as compared with the previous year, and the number of fires classed as serious (i.e., over Rs. 20,000 damage per fire, see appendix III) was 22 as per previous year.

Fire Stations.—Appendix IV gives the number of times each fire station has been turned out in response to fire calls together with monthly statements.

Staff.—The strength of the Brigade during the year was 284 as detailed below:—

One Chief Officer, 1 Second Officer, 1 Chief Engineer, 5 Station Officers, 8 Engineers, 7 firemen, 1 Warehouse Inspector, 5 clerks, 1 store-keeper, 3 telephone operators, 2 carpenters, 2 lathe mechanics, 1 fitter, 1 blacksmith, 1 tinsmith, 10 Indian drivers, 1 head tindal, 30 tindals, 188 khallasies and 15 menial employees.

The conduct and discipline of the staff throughout the year have been exemplary.

Fatalities and accidents.—Appendix VI gives short reports of fires and special occurrences involving loss of life or serious accidents.

It is with deep regret I am to report the death by heart failure of one of my Station Officers late H. J. Abbott. The officer rendered conspicuous services for 15 years to the Brigade and he was one of the most efficient officers.

The number of lives lost at fires during the year under review is 8 being a decrease of 5 as compared with the previous year.

I am glad to report that no serious accidents occurred during training recruits, or at drill.

In all cases, where necessary, first-aid was rendered by the Fire Brigade and the injured persons conveyed to hospital by motor ambulances.

Water-supply.—In Calcutta water for fire extinguishing is obtained from the unfiltered water-supply system maintained by the Corporation of Calcutta with pumping stations located on the banks of the river Hooghly at Mullick Ghat and Watgunge.

Fires in Cossipur-Chitpur and adjoining areas are extinguished with water supplied from ponds or tanks, many of which are replenished only by rainfall.

In Howrah the condition is far from satisfactory, although the municipality has installed some hydrants on the filtered water-supply for being used at fires.

Fire float.—The fire float (5,000 gallons per minute capacity) is stationed on the river opposite the Prinsep's Ghat. During the year under review it has responded to 11 calls as compared with 14 calls in the previous year.

Street fire alarms, telephones and electrical communications.—I am pleased to record my appreciation of the excellent service rendered by the Bengal Telephone Company.

Inspection Department.—The majority of theatres, cinemas and other places of public amusement, with few exceptions, have no serious fire risks and there were no serious fires during the year under review in threatres, cinemas or places of public amusement.

In connection with the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act 1 of 1893, 6,519 inspections of warehouses have been made during the year. Four hundred and fifty-nine applications and complaints have been attended to and disposed of. One hundred and thirty-two prosecutions were made under section 14 of Act 1 of 1893 which resulted in 77 persons being fined, the fines aggregating in all Rs. 801. Twenty-five persons were warned and discharged and 28 cases were withdrawn and two cases were acquitted.

General.—The Calcutta Fire Brigade protects the City of Calcutta and the municipalities of Howrah and Garden Reach, and may attend fires outside the boundaries of the above, but not exceeding a radius of 12 miles from Fire Brigade Headquarters, provided appliances can be spared, and on payment of a prescribed fee. The total area protected is approximately 112 square miles, comprising a population of over 2,000,000 persons.

Fire Brigade Headquarters is still located in premises rented for that purpose. A scheme for building an up-to-date and efficient Headquarters on Free School Street as approved by the Calcutta Corporation, Garden Reach and Howrah Municipalities has now been sanctioned by Government and steps are being taken for building the Station.

On the 5th December 1938 a tournament and exhibition of the Calcutta Fire Brigade was held in honour of His Excellency the Governor of Bengal, late Rt. Hon'ble Lord Brabourne, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., M.C.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 2A, read with sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897 (Act III of 1897), the Governor is pleased to prescribe the following temporary regulations for the prevention and control of smallpox, and for the medical inspection, isolation, observation and surveillance of persons suffering from, or suspected of being infected with, smallpox in the said municipality for a period of three months:—

Temporary regulations for the prevention and control of smallpox.

1. In these regulations, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "Health Officer" means the Health Officer of the municipality;

(d) "Patient" means a person suffering from or suspected to be suffering from smallpox;

(e) "Medical practitioner" means any person practising the medical profession.

Notices.

2. If in any case the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector considers that the issue of a notice under regulation 20 is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of smallpox, he may forthwith take such steps as he may think fit for carrying out the work, and shall thereafter, as soon as possible, issue a notice on the person concerned stating the reason why such work has been carried out.

3. If any measure which the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector has, by a notice issued under regulation 20, required to be carried out, be not carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notices the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

Cost and compensation.

4. (1) All expenses incurred in carrying out any work in pursuance of an order issued under these regulations shall be paid by the municipality except in any case where the order directs a person to carry out any work in relation to property in his profession, in which case the expenses shall be paid by such person:

Provided that where the conditions, which led the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector to pass such an order, are not attributable to any act or default of the person in possession of the property, the municipality may pay to such person the whole or a part of the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the order.

(2) The municipality may recover all expenses incurred by the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector in carrying out the measure under regulation 3 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

5. The municipality shall pay adequate compensation to any person who has sustained substantial loss or damage by reason of anything done under these regulations:

Provided that no person shall receive any compensation for anything done or suffered under these regulations, if he has failed to carry out an order, issued under these regulations within the time specified in the order and to the satisfaction of the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.

Location of disease.

6. When a case of smallpox occurs in a house, the nearest male relative in attendance upon the patient, or in the absence of any such relative the occupier of the house, or if the occupier be the patient, the senior male inmate of the house other than patient of the house shall within twenty-four hours of the onset of the disease, give information regarding the occurrence of such case either personally or in writing to the nearest Sanitary Inspector.

(2) The doctor-in-charge of a hospital or a dispensary within the municipality shall forthwith give notice of any case of smallpox brought to such hospital or dispensary for treatment to a Sanitary Inspector or to the Health Officer by a special messenger and the cost of such messenger in each case shall be defrayed by the municipality.

8. Registrars of births and deaths shall supply to the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector such periodical returns of cases of smallpox as he may from time to time call upon them to furnish.

9. The Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may examine any person who is, or suspected to be, suffering from smallpox or who, in his opinion, may be infected with or likely to spread smallpox.

Isolation of patients.

10. When the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector considers that the isolation of any patient is a precaution necessary for the protection of the neighbouring population, he shall order the patient to observe isolation and may order the nearest relative in attendance on the patient, or the occupier of the house in which the patient is staying to arrange for the isolation of the patient in such a manner and for such a time as may be approved by the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.

14. When a patient has been removed from a house for isolation under regulation 10, the municipality shall provide for him free of charge a suitable place, with necessary attendants, diet, etc.

15. No person, who is or has been suffering from smallpox, shall leave the place where he has been staying until he has received from the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector written permission to do so.

25. No person shall expose in any street, shop, bazar or any public place any clothing, bedding or other article which has been in contact with a patient or shall cause or suffer such articles to be carried in any public conveyance, but nothing in this regulation shall apply to a person who transmits with proper precautions against spreading the disease any such article for the purpose or having the same disinfected.

26. No person shall carry or permit to be carried in a public conveyance the dead body of any person who has died of smallpox without the previous written permission of the Health Officer, or the Sanitary Inspector, and without taking proper precautions against spreading the said disease.

Tippera.—No. 586P.H.—8th April 1940.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 311 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor is pleased to make the following rules for the regulation of the supply of filtered water to private premises for domestic purposes in the southern section of the Chandpur Municipality in the district of Tippera:—

Rules.

So long as the Commissioners deem it practicable and consistent with the maintenance of an efficient water-supply, they may grant to any owner or occupier of a holding paying a water rate imposed under the provisions of Chapter VIII of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, on the annual value of such holding, when such annual value is not less than Rs. 100, a connecting-pipe from the service-pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of leading water to such holding for domestic purposes only.

1. The owner or occupier of any holding requiring water to be laid on to such holding for domestic purposes must apply for the same on the printed form A to be supplied free of cost at the municipal office. The conditions subject to which a house-connection will be given are set out in the form, and the owner or occupier shall sign the statement undertaking to observe the rules before a house-connection will be given.

2. A fee of Rs. 100 shall be paid to the Commissioners by such owner or occupier for each connection to a municipal main supply-pipe before any work is commenced, such fee to be in addition to all other costs and charges imposed under these rules.

3. Each holding must have a separate connection to the municipal main supply-pipe. Extension from the communication-pipe of one holding to another holding shall not be permitted and combination of holdings for the purpose of these rules shall not be allowed.

4. The connection shall consist of two portions -

(a) the service-pipe from the street main to the boundary of the holding, including ferrule, stop-cock and check-pipes;

(b) the storage tank (or tanks) with service-pipe connecting to it from the boundary of the holding, also outlet-pipes, taps and other accessories as required.

5. The items referred to in clause (a) of rule 4 shall be provided and fixed by and at the expense of the Commissioners, and such pipes and fittings shall remain as their property.

6. The items referred to in clause (b) of rule 4 shall be provided and fixed at the expense of the owner or occupier and shall be maintained by him in good working order. The tank is to be suitably covered and protected and is to be provided with locked lid, ball-valve, stop-valve and overflow pipe. The inlet and outlet pipes shall be so laid that they will be protected from the heat of the sun.

7. The owner or occupier shall not permit the service-pipe including the items referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of rule 4 or any part thereof, to be altered, removed or interfered with by any person other than an authorised representative of the Commissioners, who shall be empowered by the Commissioners to alter or adjust the service-pipe as may from time to time be necessary for the maintenance of the requisite flow of water. No tapping or branching off of the service-pipe shall be allowed except at a level approximately the same as that of the ball-valve.

8. The tank referred to in clause (b) of rule 4 shall be durable and water-tight and the cover, overflow pipe and other accessories shall be so constructed that mosquitoes cannot enter the tank. The ball-valve and other fittings shall be exact duplicates of standard samples kept in the office of the Commissioners and approved by them at a meeting. The storage tank or tanks shall be cleaned and sterilized quarterly by the staff of the Commissioners under the supervision of one of their officers and the said officer shall have the power of locking up the tank or tanks if he thinks so desirable.

9. Every storage tank shall be fitted with an overflow pipe, the end of which shall project over the wall of the house and shall be placed in a conspicuous position. Discharge of water from the overflow pipe means that the ball-valve is failing to function, and the owner or occupier shall notify the waterworks officers every time he finds such discharge occurring.

10. Every owner or occupier of any holding, in respect of which a connection has been made under these rules, shall be entitled to supply of water corresponding to the annual valuation of such holding, according to the following table:—

The requisition shall be for a period of not less than one year, and payment shall be made in advance for the whole year at the rate of one pie per 10 gallons of additional water per day requisitioned.

When the above conditions have been complied with, the Commissioners shall have the house-connection adjusted so as to enable the additional water to be supplied, the adjustment of the connection and the payment being based on the particulars furnished by the applicant in form C.

12. In case the owner or occupier requires for a special occasion or for any other purpose more water than the amount to which he is entitled according to rule 10 or rules 10 and 11 together, as the case may be, he may apply to the Commissioners in form B (obtainable at the municipal office free of charge) for a temporary connection. He shall pay in advance the sum of Rs. 10 per tank, and also shall pay weekly the following charges during the whole time he retains the temporary connection :—

He shall state in his application the number of weeks for which the connection is required.

13. On receipt of the application, together with the fees as provided in rule 12, the Commissioners shall forthwith instal within the compound and at a level of two feet above ground an additional storage tank (or tanks) of 300 gallons capacity with ball-valve and two taps fixed to each tank. They shall connect the same to the street main by a service-pipe or pipes, and do all other work necessary to commence and maintain the supply.

The Commissioners shall keep in stock a number of tanks, with pipes, fittings, etc., for the above purpose.

14. The payment referred to in rule 12 shall be made once a week. In case the owner or occupier fails to make the payment weekly, the Commissioners or their officers may at once stop the additional supply of water by cutting off the temporary connection and remove the storage tank or tanks, temporary service-pipe, etc., fixed for such connection.

15. Two or more such temporary connections may be taken, if required, on payment of additional costs and weekly charges.

16. The Commissioners may cut off the connection between any waterworks of the Commissioners and any holding to which water is supplied from such works, or may turn off such supply, in any of the following cases, viz.—

(a) If the holding is unoccupied;

(b) If the occupier fails to pay his water rate;

(c) if the occupier in any way interferes with, damages or alters the service-pipe; and

(d) if the occupier refuses to admit any officer duly empowered in that behalf into the holding for the purpose of making any examination or inspection of the service-pipe or storage tank, or prevents such officer from making such examination or inspection:

Provided that twenty-four hours' notice in writing of such examination or inspection may be demanded.

17. The works required under rule 4 (b) shall be carried out by a person or firm employed by owner or occupier and approved by the Commissioners. For this purpose the Commissioners shall grant licenses to approved persons or firms, who should preferably have had previous experience in plumbing work.

18. No connection shall be permitted to any holding unless and until the owner or occupier makes effective provision to the satisfaction of the Commissioners for draining away all waste water.

THE BENGAL NON-AGRICULTURAL TENANCY BILL, 1939.

A

for the protection of tenants holding lands in permanently-settled estates for non-agricultural purposes.

WHEREAS it is necessary to compel the proprietors and other classes of landlords in permanently-settled areas to conduct themselves with moderation towards their non-agricultural tenants;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Act, 1940.

(2) It shall apply to the permanently-settled areas of the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force with effect from the 1st April, 1940.

Definition.

2. "Non-agricultural tenant" means any person holding land as tenant for non-agricultural purposes whether for homestead, shop, godown or factory or for any purposes except for agriculture and horticulture immediately or mediately under a proprietor.

3. Notwithstanding any contract between parties or anything in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, non-agricultural tenant shall not be liable to ejectment except for using the land in such a manner as to lower its value substantially : IV of 1882.

Provided that a non-agricultural tenant not liable to ejectment according to the terms of contract between parties or in accordance with the provisions of any law for the time being in force, shall not be liable to ejectment by virtue of this section :

Provided further that except as provided by paragraph 1 of this section, no suit for ejectment shall lie for any land purchased or otherwise transferred before the commencement of this Act.

4. Notwithstanding any contract between the parties or any law for the time being in force or any custom to the contrary the non-agricultural tenant shall have the right to erect any pucca structures and to plant and cut down trees in his tenancy.

5. Notwithstanding anything in a contract or any custom to the contrary the rent of a non-agricultural tenant's holding shall not be liable to enhancement except under the provisions of this Act.

6. The rent of a non-agricultural tenant's holding unless definitely settled as mokarari or fixed in perpetuity, shall be liable to enhancement or reduction according to the following principles :—

(a) The maximum amount of rent of a non-agricultural tenant's holding after enhancement shall not exceed, by more than 50 per cent. the average prevailing rate of rent payable for the agricultural land comprised in the estate or mouja in which the non-agricultural tenancy is situate.

The Bengal Non-Agricultural Tenancy Bill, 1939.

(Clauses 7, 8.)

(b) When the existing rent is found to be more or less than the amount provided in sub-section (a) of this section it shall be reduced or enhanced, as the case may be, to an amount as provided by that sub-section.

(c) If the rent is once enhanced or reduced it shall not be revised again except in the case of increase or reduction in the area of the tenancy.

7. Where not transferable at present either under the contract or according to law, non-agricultural tenant's holding shall be transferable without landlord's consent.

8. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties, in the case of a compulsory acquisition of the land of a non-agricultural tenant's holding under the Land Acquisition Act, the compensation money shall be apportioned to such tenant under the ordinary law for apportioning the compensation as if the contract did not exist.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Bengal Tenancy Laws were enacted from time to time for protecting the agricultural raiyats but unfortunately nothing has so far been done to give any protection to the non-agricultural tenants who also owing to their very helpless condition require as much protection as the agricultural raiyats. In the absence of any law, landlords of non-agricultural areas in permanently-settled estates, treat them as tenants-at-will and mercilessly squeeze out money from such tenants and the purchasers. The present Bill has been brought to give such tenants protection from eviction and arbitrary enhancement of rent. Provision has also been made for free transferability of such tenancies in all cases and for equitable rate of rent.

K. ALI AFZAL,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Assembly.

THE BENGAL MARRIAGE DOWRY PREVENTION BILL, 1939.

A

to abolish the practice of taking dowries in marriages in Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish the dowry system in marriages for the prevention of cruelties in marriages in Hindus, Muhammadans and any other societies domiciled in Bengal and for making the marriage ceremony easier and happier in those societies, it is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Marriage Dowry Prevention Act, 1939.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal and is applicable to the Hindus, Muhammadans and all other societies domiciled in Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint.

2. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the object or context—

(1) The term " Bridegroom's party " means and includes the party of the bridegroom, his relations, friends, and other persons who are connected with the marriage settlement of the bridegroom, and " bride's party " means and includes parents of the bride, her relations who are connected with her marriage settlement.

(2) " Dowry " means and includes any amount in cash, any ornament for bride or bridegroom or any other property moveable or immoveable or any valuable security, i.e., a document whereby a legal right to any such property is created, extended, transferred, restricted, extinguished, or released or whereby any person acknowledges that he is under any legal liability or has not a legal right in respect of any such property given or executed in consideration of marriage.

3. If any bridegroom, anyone of his party receives or in any way appropriates any dowry from the bride or her party or if a bride or any of bride's party receives or in any way appropriates any dowry from the bridegroom or his party, or if a bridegroom or bride refuses to marry or his or her party refuses to consent to the marriage only on the ground of inability of the other party to pay dowry, he or she shall be punished with imprisonment of either description which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both :

Provided that no gift of any ornaments, cloths or garments or any other thing which are ordinarily used by females of that class of society to which the bride belongs and which are given to the bride out of affection without any demand from the bridegroom or bride or any of his or her party, is a dowry within the meaning of this section.

The Bengal Marriage Dowry Prevention Bill, 1939.

(Clauses 4, 5.)

4. If a husband gives pressure to or ill-treats his wife in order to exact or thereby exacts any dowry after marriage from her or her father, mother or brother or if he insults or threatens to insult or to forsake her for the exaction of any such dowry from her or her father, mother, or brother, he shall be punished with imprisonment of either description which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

5. No Magistrate shall take cognizance of such a case except on the complaint of the bride or wife or on the complaint of her father, mother or brother or the bridegroom as the case may be and the offence shall be bailable and compoundable.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

A nefarious practice of extorting heavy dowry from the bride's parents has grown amongst the educated communities of Hindus and Muhammadans in Bengal, so much so, that many families have been heavily indebted and ruined and many others are going to be ruined under the pressure of the brutal dowry system. We hear now and then and find also in newspapers, reports of unmarried girls committing suicide to relieve their parents from the heavy expenses of their marriages. In illiterate classes on the other hand the practice of payment of bride's price has assumed such shape that a poor man cannot marry till he grows old or remains unmarried for want of necessary funds for bride's price. So generally the poor man marries only to leave a widow behind him soon after his marriage. These show how this evil practice is eating in the vital part of the societies especially of Hindu and Muhammadan societies. If this pernicious practice is not checked in time, it will create havoc in the communities concerned.

2. The dowry system is bad upon principle as in these days of equality, it is fully injudicious and unjust that man and woman should be treated differently in marriages.

3. In these days of economic difficulties it is suicidal to the societies to indulge in unnecessary expenses. For these and other reasons it is absolutely necessary that this evil practice be immediately stopped by legislation.

27 (D). Any Receiver appointed by any court shall be held accountable as a mutawalli within the meaning of the section 6(6) of this Act and will be liable to be removed or replaced by the Board of Wakfs on the recommendation of the Commissioner, if such removal or replacement is expedient and necessary in the interest of the wakf.

Wakf Tribunal.

6. Add the following sections in Chapter X of the Act :—

All such questions and answers shall be recorded by the Judge.

(ii) After the Judge has finished his charge, the assessors may retire to consider their opinions.

(iii) The Judge shall then or at any time later pronounce judgment in open court in the manner provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and in so doing shall not be bound to conform to the opinion of the assessors either on points of law or of fact. On such judgments a decree shall follow and such judgment and decree shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be a judgment and decree pronounced and passed by a District Judge under section 33 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

66 (G). Notwithstanding anything contained in the Court Fees Act, 1870, the Local Government may prescribe the fees payable in respect of suits and proceedings referred to in section 66 (A) and of all petitions and applications made therein but, subject to such rules, the provisions of the said Act, shall be applicable to all such suits and proceedings.

66 (H). The Commissioner of Wakfs may refer any question to the Tribunal appointed under section 66 (B), while exercising his functions under section 27, section 27 (A) or any other section of the Act and the decision of the Tribunal on the question so referred shall be final.

66 (I). 83 (A). All the provisions of the Bengal Court of Wards Act, as amended up to date, shall apply, as far as may be consistent with the provision of the Wakf Act, to the Wakf Estate taken over by the Commissioner of Wakfs for management under section 27(1)(f) and 27C(c).

10. The words "five years" in the 4th line of section 53, sub-section (1), shall be deleted and the following words substituted in their place "1 year in case of house property and 3 years in case of agricultural lands."

11. In section 78 of the Act insert the word " exclusively" between the words "Bengal" and "by" in the 4th line of 2nd paragraph (section 23A).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Wakf Act of 1934 is defective in many ways. There are several ambiguities and omissions which make its provisions ineffective and infructuous. Some of the powers now given to the Board of Wakfs and the Commissioner of Wakfs which heretofore used to be exercised by the Civil Courts, have not been withdrawn specifically from the latter, and this leads to conflict of jurisdiction.

For the proper administration of wakfs it is necessary to invest the Board of Wakfs with more powers particularly with regard to financing and management of wakf properties and their protection from sale.

It is also necessary to simplify the trial of wakf suits between interested persons and arrange for their expeditious disposal.

Although it was intended that the Board should effectively control the management and administration of wakfs particularly those in which no mutawalli is functioning, the Act does not clearly define such powers. Particularly in cases where receivers are in possession having been appointed by courts it has been found difficult to bring them under control.

The present amending Bill aims at the solution of these difficulties.

K. ALI AFZAL,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Assembly.

THE BENGAL VILLAGE SELF-GOVERNMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1939.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1939.

2. It shall come into force on the date it is finally published in the Calcutta Gazette after it is passed by both Houses of Legislature and assented to by the Governor.

2A. Sub-section (3) of section 6 with the proviso shall be deleted.

3. In section 7 after the words " shall be entitled to vote at an election of the members of the union board :", the following words shall be inserted, namely :—

" and the votes shall be taken by secret ballot in the manner prescribed by rules made under this Act."

4. The following section be substituted for section 20 :—

" The union board shall, when a vacancy occurs, appoint a person to be a dafadar or chaukidar under this Act. The union board may, on good and sufficient grounds, dismiss a dafadar or chaukidar."

5. The following section be substituted for section 21 :—

" The number of dafadars and chaukidars to be employed in a union, the salary to be paid to them and the nature and cost of their equipment shall be determined by the union board."

6. The following section be substituted for section 22 :—

" Any dafadar or chaukidar who is guilty of any wilful misconduct in his office or neglect of his duty, such misconduct or neglect not being so grave in the opinion of the board, as to require his dismissal, shall be liable to be punished by the union board with a fine not exceeding the amount of one month's salary."

7. The following section be substituted for section 25 :—

" All fines realised from a dafadar or chaukidar under section 22 of the Act, shall be credited to a Fund of the union named as Prize Fund."

8. In section 36 the following words be deleted, namely :—

" subject to the approval of the local board or where there is no local board, of district board."

9. In section 37, sub-section (a), after the word " contribution," the words " if any " be deleted.

10. In section 40 after the words " District Magistrate", the words " or Subdivisional Magistrate " be inserted.

11. The proviso to section 45 be omitted.

12. In proviso to section 88 after the words " the District Judge", the words " or the Subdivisional Munsif, where there is no Subdivisional Munsif, the senior Munsif of the Subdivisional Munsif Court" be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Secret ballot is a crying necessity to avoid undue influence and coercion. Unlike other self-governing bodies the union boards can neither appoint nor dismiss dafadars or chaukidars though they pay for their salaries and equipment. This is unfair and equitable. Moreover the union board is the most competent authority to determine the number of dafadars and chaukidars necessary for the union and the salary to be paid to them and the requisite equipment for them. So dictation from outside is superfluous and generally creates difficulties in the working of the union boards. The union board alone should have power for inflicting punishment on its servants. So the power of the District Magistrate in this respect should be withdrawn. These rights are long overdue for the union boards. The present dyarchical system is mainly responsible for the general neglect of duties among the dafadars and chaukidars. So this dyarchy should be given a decent burial. It is desirable that the fines realised from the dafadars or chaukidars of a union should be credited to the Prize Fund of that union so that some one of them may be benefited thereby. The Subdivisional Magistrate along with District Magistrate should be given the power of revising an assessment. The union boards for securing suitable grant-in-aid from the District Board under proviso to section 45, which is a misnomer in many cases, vie with each other in making assessment under section 37(b) and this zeal is responsible for the abnormally high union rate in many unions. So the sooner the proviso to section 45 goes the better for the rate-payers. Like Subdivisional Magistrate under section 71 the Subdivisional Munsif or the senior Munsif of the Subdivisional Court should be invested with power to revise the order or decrees of the union courts to minimise the troubles of the public in attending the District Judge's Court. Nomination has outgrown its utility hence it should be abolished.

(2) Subject to the superintendence and direction of the Central Government, the register shall be kept under the control and management of the Controller of Patents and Designs, who shall for the purposes of this Act be called the Registrar of Trade Marks and is in this Act referred to as the Registrar.

(3) The register shall at all convenient times be open to the inspection of the public, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

Registration to be in respect of particular goods.

5. (1) A trade mark may be registered only in respect of particular goods or classes of goods.

(2) Any question arising as to the class within which any goods fall shall be determined by the Registrar whose decision in the matter shall be final.

Distinctiveness requisite for registration.

6. (1) A trade mark shall not be registered unless it contains or consists of at least one of the following essential particulars, namely:—

(a) the name of a company, individual, or firm, represented in a special or particular manner;

(b) the signature of the applicant for registration or some predecessor in his business;

(c) one or more invented words;

(d) one or more words having no direct reference to the character or quality of the goods, and not being, according to its ordinary signification, a geographical name or surname or the name of a sect, caste or tribe in India;

(e) any other distinctive mark, provided that a name, signature, or any word, other than such as fall within the descriptions in the above clauses, shall not be registrable except upon evidence of its distinctiveness.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the expression "distinctive" means adapted, in relation to the goods in respect of which a trade mark is proposed to be registered, to distinguish goods with which the proprietor of the trade mark is or may be connected in the course of trade from goods in the case of which no such connection subsists, either generally or, where the trade mark is proposed to be registered subject to limitations, in relation to use within the extent of the registration.

(3) In determining whether a trade mark is adapted to distinguish as aforesaid, the tribunal may have regard to the extent to which—

(a) the trade mark is inherently so adapted to distinguish, and

(b) by reason of the use of the trade mark or of any other circumstances, the trade mark is in fact so adapted to distinguish:

Provided that in the case of a trade mark which has been continuously used (either by the applicant for registration or by some predecessor in his business, and either in its original form or with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity) in relation to the same goods as those in relation to which registration is applied for, during a period from a date prior to the 25th day of February, 1937, to the date of application for registration, the Registrar shall not refuse registration by reason only of the fact that the trade mark is not adapted to distinguish as aforesaid, and may accept evidence of acquired distinctiveness as entitling the trade mark to registration.

Limitation as to colour.

7. (1) A trade mark may be limited wholly or in part to one or more specified colours, and any such limitation shall be taken into consideration by any tribunal having to decide on the distinctive character of the trade mark.

(2) So far as a trade mark is registered without limitation of colour it shall be deemed to be registered for all colours.

Prohibition of registration of certain matter.

8. No trade mark nor part of a trade mark shall be registered which consists of, or contains, any scandalous design, or any matter the use of which would—

(a) by reason of its being likely to deceive or to cause confusion or otherwise, be disentitled to protection in a Court of justice; or

(b) be likely to hurt the religious susceptibilities of any class of His Majesty's subjects; or

(c) be contrary to any law for the time being in force or to morality.

Use of names of chemical elements barred.

9. No word which is the commonly used and accepted name of any single chemical element or single chemical compound (as distinguished from a mixture) shall be registered as a trade mark in respect of a chemical substance or preparation, and any such registration shall, notwithstanding anything in section 24, be deemed for the purposes of section 46 to be an entry made in the register without sufficient cause or an entry wrongly remaining on the register, as the circumstances may require:

Provided that this section shall not apply to a word which is used to denote only a brand or make of the element or compound as made by the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark, as distinguished from the element or compound as made by others, and in association with a suitable name or description open to the public use.

Prohibition of registration of identical or similar trade mark.

10. (1) Save as provided in sub section (2), no trade mark shall be registered in respect of any goods or description of goods which is identical with a trade mark belonging to a different proprietor and already on the register in respect of the same goods or description of goods, or which so nearly resembles such trade mark as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion.

(2) In case of honest concurrent use or of other special circumstances which, in the opinion of the Registrar, make it proper so to do he may permit the registration by more than one proprietor of trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other in respect of the same goods or description of goods, subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as the Registrar may think fit to impose.

(3) Where separate applications are made by different persons to be registered as proprietors respectively of trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other, in respect of the same goods or description of goods, the Registrar may refuse to register any of them until their rights have been determined by a competent Court.

Registration of parts of trade marks and of trade marks as a series.

11. (1) Where the proprietor of a trade mark claims to be entitled to the exclusive use of any part thereof separately, he may apply to register the whole and the part as separate trade marks.

(2) Each such separate trade mark shall satisfy all the conditions applying to, and have all the incidents of, an independent trade mark.

(3) Where a person claiming to be the proprietor of several trade marks in respect of the same goods or description of goods which, while resembling each other in the material particulars thereof, yet differ in respect of—

(a) statements of the goods in relation to which they are respectively used or proposed to be used; or

(b) statements of number, price, quality, or names of places; or

(c) other matter of a non-distinctive character which does not substantially affect the identity of the trade mark; or seeks to register those trade marks, they may be registered as a series in one registration.

Associated trade marks.

12. (1) Where a trade mark which is registered, or is the subject of an application for registration, in respect of any goods is identical with another trade mark which is registered, or is the subject of an application for registration, in the name of the same proprietor in respect of the same goods or description of goods, or so nearly resembles it as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion if used by a person other than the proprietor, the Registrar may at any time require that the trade marks shall be entered on the register as associated trade marks.

(2) Where a trade mark and any part thereof are, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 11, registered as separate trade marks in the name of the same proprietor, they shall be deemed to be, and shall be registered as, associated trade marks.

(3) All trade marks registered in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 11 as a series in one registration shall be deemed to be, and shall be registered as, associated trade marks.

(4) On application made in the prescribed manner by the registered proprietor of two or more trade marks registered as associated trade marks, the Registrar may dissolve the association as respects any of them if he is satisfied that there would be no likelihood of deception or confusion being caused if that trade mark were used by any other person in relation to any of the goods in respect of which it is registered, and may amend the register accordingly.

Registration subject to disclaimer.

13. If a trade mark contains—

(a) any part not separately registered as a trade mark in the name of the proprietor, or for the separate registration of which no application has been made, or

(b) any matter common to the trade, or otherwise of a non-distinctive character, the tribunal, in deciding whether the trade mark shall be entered or shall remain on the register, may require, as a condition of its being on the register, that the proprietor shall either disclaim any right to the exclusive use of such part or of all or any portion of such matter, as the case may be, to the exclusive use of which the tribunal holds him not to be entitled, or make such other disclaimer as the tribunal may consider necessary for the purpose of defining the rights of the proprietor under the registration:

Provided that no disclaimer shall affect any rights of the proprietor of a trade mark except such as arise out of the registration of the trade mark in respect of which the disclaimer is made.

CHAPTER III.

PROCEDURE FOR, AND DURATION OF, REGISTRATION.

Application for registration.

14. (1) Any person claiming to be the proprietor of a trade mark used or proposed to be used by him who is desirous of registering it shall apply in writing to the Registrar in the prescribed manner, and subject to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar may refuse the application or may accept it absolutely or subject to such amendments, modifications, conditions or limitations, if any, as he may think fit.

(2) In the case of a refusal or conditional acceptance the Registrar shall, if required by the applicant, state in writing the grounds of his decision and the materials used by him in arriving thereat.

(3) The tribunal may at any time, whether before or after acceptance, correct any error in or in connection with the application, or may permit the applicant to amend his application upon such terms as it may think fit.

Opposition to registration.

15. (1) When an application for registration of a trade mark has been accepted, whether absolutely or subject to conditions or limitations, the Registrar shall, as soon as may be after acceptance, cause the application as accepted, together with the conditions and limitations, if any, subject to which it has been accepted, to be advertised in the prescribed manner:

Provided that the Registrar may cause an application to be advertised before acceptance if it relates to a trade mark to which clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 6 applies, or in any other case where it appears to him that it is expedient by reason of any exceptional circumstances so to do, and where an application has been so advertised the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, advertise it again when it has been accepted, but shall not be bound so to do.

(2) Any person may, within the prescribed time from the date of the advertisement of an application, give notice in writing in the prescribed manner to the Registrar of opposition to the registration.

(3) The Registrar shall serve in the prescribed manner a copy of the notice on the applicant, and within the prescribed time the applicant shall send to the Registrar, in the prescribed manner, a counter-statement of the grounds on which he relies for his application, and, if he does not do so, he shall be deemed to have abandoned his application.

(4) If the applicant sends such counter-statement the Registrar shall serve in the prescribed manner a copy thereof on the persons giving notice of opposition, and shall, after hearing the parties, if so required, and considering the evidence, decide whether, and subject to what conditions or limitations, if any, registration is to be permitted.

(5) If a person giving notice of opposition or an applicant sending a counter-statement after receipt of a copy of such notice, or an appellant against any order of the Registrar under section 14 or this section, neither resides nor carries on business in British India, the tribunal may require him to give security for costs of the proceedings before it, and in default of such security being duly given may treat the opposition or application or appeal, as the case may be, as abandoned.

Registration.

16. (1) When an application for registration of a trade mark has been accepted and either has not been opposed and the time for notice of opposition has expired, or having been opposed, has been decided in favour of the applicant, the Registrar shall, unless the application has been accepted in error, or unless the Central Government otherwise directs, register the said trade mark, and the trade mark, when registered, shall be registered as of the date of the making of the said application, and that date shall, subject to any directions made under section 83 applicable to such trade mark, be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the date of registration.

(2) On the registration of a trade mark the Registrar shall issue to the applicant a certificate in the prescribed form of the registration thereof sealed with the seal of the Patent Office.

(3) Where registration of a trade mark is not completed within twelve months from the date of the application by reason of default on the part of the applicant, the Registrar may, after giving notice to the applicant in the prescribed manner, treat the application as abandoned unless it is completed within the time specified in that behalf in the notice.

Jointly owned trade marks.

17. (1) Save as provided in sub-section (2), nothing in this Act shall authorise the registration of two or more persons who use a trade mark independently, or propose so to use it, as joint proprietors thereof.

(2) Where the relations between two or more persons interested in a trade mark are such that no one of them is entitled as between himself and the other or others of them to use it except—

(a) on behalf of both or all of them, or

(b) in relation to an article with which both or all of them are connected in the course of trade, those persons may be registered as joint proprietors of the trade mark, and this Act shall have effect in relation to any rights to the use of the trade mark vested in those persons as if those rights had been vested in a single person.

Duration and renewal of registration.

18. (1) The registration of a trade mark shall be for a period of seven years, but may be renewed from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The Registrar shall, on application made by the registered proprietor of a trade mark in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period, renew the registration of the trade mark for a period of fifteen years from the date of expiration of the original registration or of the last renewal of registration, as the case may be (which date is in this section referred to as "the expiration of the last registration").

(3) At the prescribed time before the expiration of the last registration of a trade mark, the Registrar shall send notice in the prescribed manner to the registered proprietor of the date of expiration and the conditions as to payment of fees and otherwise upon which a renewal of registration may be obtained, and if at the expiration of the time prescribed in that behalf those conditions have not been duly complied with the Registrar may remove the trade mark from the register, subject to such conditions (if any) as to its restoration to the register as may be prescribed.

Effect of removal from register for failure to pay fee for renewal.

19. Where a trade mark has been removed from the register for failure to pay the fee for renewal, it shall nevertheless, for the purpose of any application for the registration of another trade mark during one year next after the date of the removal, be deemed to be a trade mark already on the register, unless the tribunal is satisfied either—

(a) that there has been no bona fide trade use of the trade mark which has been removed during the two years immediately preceding its removal; or

(b) that no deception or confusion would be likely to arise from the use of the trade mark which is the subject of the application for registration by reason of any previous use of the trade mark which has been removed.

CHAPTER IV.

EFFECT OF REGISTRATION.

No action for infringement of unregistered trade mark.

20. (1) No person shall be entitled to institute any proceeding to prevent, or to recover damages for, the infringement of an unregistered trade mark unless such trade mark has been continuously in use since before the 25th day of February, 1937, by such person or by a predecessor in title of his and unless an application for its registration, made within five years from the commencement of this Act, has been refused, and the Registrar shall, on application in the prescribed manner, grant a certificate that such application has been refused.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect rights of action against any person for passing off goods as the goods of another person or the remedies in respect thereof.

Right conferred by registration.

21. Subject to the provisions of sections 22, 25 and 26, the registration of a person in the register as proprietor of a trade mark in respect of any goods shall, if valid, give to that person the exclusive right to the use of the trade mark in relation to those goods and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, that right shall be deemed to be infringed by any person who, not being the proprietor of the trade mark or a registered user thereof using by way of the permitted use, uses a mark identical with it or so nearly resembling it as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion, in the course of trade, in relation to any goods in respect of which it is registered, and in such manner as to render the use of the mark likely to be taken either—

(a) as being use as a trade mark; or

(b) to import a reference to some person having the right either as a proprietor or as registered user to use the trade mark or to goods with which such a person as aforesaid is connected in the course of trade.

No Infringement in certain circumstances.

22. (1) The right to the use of a trade mark given under section 21 by registration shall be subject to any conditions or limitations entered on the register, and shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid in any mode, in relation to goods to be sold or otherwise traded in, in any place, or in relation to goods to be exported to any market, or in any other circumstances, to which, having regard to any such limitations, the registration does not extend.

(2) The said right to the use of a trade mark shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid by any person—

(a) in relation to goods connected in the course of trade with the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark if, as to those goods or a bulk of which they form part the proprietor or the registered user conforming to the permitted use has applied the trade mark and has not subsequently removed or obliterated it, or has at any time expressly or impliedly consented to the use of the trade mark; or

(b) in relation to goods adapted to form part of, or to be accessory to, other goods in relation to which the trade mark has been used without infringement of the right given as aforesaid or might for the time being be so used, if the use of the mark is reasonably necessary in order to indicate that the goods are so adapted and neither the purpose nor the effect of the use of the mark is to indicate otherwise than in accordance with the fact a connection in the course of trade between any person and the goods.

(3) The use of a registered trade mark, being one of two or more registered trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other, in exercise of the right to the use of that trade mark given by registration as aforesaid, shall not be deemed to be an infringement of the right so given to the use of any other of those trade marks.

Registration to be prima facie evidence of validity.

23. In all legal proceedings relating to a registered trade mark, the fact that a person is registered as proprietor thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the original registration of the trade mark and of all subsequent assignments and transmissions thereof.

Registration to be conclusive as to validity after seven years.

24. In all legal proceedings relating to a registered trade mark, the original registration of the trade mark shall after the expiration of seven years from the date of such original registration be taken to be valid in all respects unless such registration was obtained by fraud, or unless the trade mark offends against the provisions of section 8.

Saving for vested rights.

25. Nothing in this Act shall entitle the proprietor or a registered user of a registered trade mark to interfere with or restrain the use by any person of a trade mark identical with or nearly resembling it in relation to goods in relation to which that person or a predecessor in title of his has continuously used that trade mark from a date prior—

(a) to the use of the first-mentioned trade mark in relation to those goods by the proprietor or a predecessor in title of his, or

(b) to the registration of the first-mentioned trade mark in respect of those goods in the name of the proprietor or a predecessor in title of his, whichever is the earlier, or to object (on such use being proved) to registration of that identical or nearly resembling trade mark in respect of those goods under sub-section (2) of section 10.

Saving for use of name, address or description of goods.

26. No registration of a trade mark shall interfere with any bona fide use by a person of his own name or that of his place of business, or of the name, or of the name of the place of business, of any of his predecessors in business, or the use by any person of any bona fide description of the character or quality of his goods, not being a description that would be likely to be taken as importing any such reference as is mentioned in clause (b) of section 21 or in clause (b) of section 57.

Words used as name or description of an article or substance.

27. (1) The registration of a trade mark shall not be deemed to have become invalid by reason only of any use after the date of the registration of any words which the trade mark contains or of which it consists as the name or description of an article or substance:

Provided that, if it is proved either—

(a) that there is a well-known and established use of the said words as the name or description of the article or substance by a person or persons carrying on a trade therein, not being use in relation to goods connected in the course of trade with the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark or (in the case of a certification trade mark) goods certified by the proprietor; or

(b) that the article or substance has been manufactured under a patent in force at or granted after the commencement of this section, that a period of two years or more after the cesser of the patent has elapsed, and that the said words are the only practicable name or description of the article or substance,— the provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply.

(2) Where the facts mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b) of the proviso to sub-section (1) are proved with respect to any words, then—

(a) for the purposes of any proceedings under section 46—

(i) if the trade mark consists solely of such words, the registration of the trade mark, so far as regards registration in respect of the article or substance in question or of any goods of the same description, shall be deemed to be an entry wrongly remaining on the register;

(ii) if the trade mark contains such words and other matter, the tribunal, in deciding whether the trade mark shall remain on the register, so far as regards registration in respect of the article or substance in question and of any goods of the same description, may, in case of a decision in favour of its remaining on the register, require as a condition thereof that the proprietor shall disclaim any right to the exclusive use in relation to that article or substance and any goods of the same description, of such words, provided that no disclaimer shall affect any rights of the proprietor of a trade mark except such as arise out of the registration of the trade mark in respect of which the disclaimer is made;

(b) for the purposes of any other legal proceedings relating to the trade mark,—

(i) if the trade mark consists solely of such words, all rights of the proprietor under this Act or any other law to the exclusive use of the trade mark in relation to the article or substance in question or to any goods of the same description, or

(ii) if the trade mark contains such words and other matter, all such rights of the proprietor to the exclusive use of such words, in such relation as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have ceased on the date at which the use mentioned in clause (a) of the proviso to sub-section (1) first became well-known and established, or at the expiration of the period of two years mentioned in clause (b) of the said proviso.

CHAPTER V.

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSMISSION.

Power of registered proprietor to assign and give receipts.

28. The person for the time being entered in the register as proprietor of a trade mark shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and to any rights appearing from the register to be vested in any other person, have power to assign the trade mark, and to give effectual receipts for any consideration for such assignment.

Assignability of registered trade marks.

29. Notwithstanding anything in any other law to the contrary, a registered trade mark shall, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, be assignable and transmissible whether in connection with the goodwill of a business or not, and in respect of either of all of the goods in respect of which it is registered or of some only of those goods.

Assignability of unregistered trade marks.

30. An unregistered trade mark shall be assignable and transmissible whether in connection with the goodwill of a business or not:

Provided that, except in connection with the goodwill of a business, assignment or transmission shall be permissible only if—

(a) at the time of assignment or transmission of the unregistered trade mark it is used in the same business as a registered trade mark, and

(b) the registered trade mark is assigned or transmitted at the same time and to the same person as the unregistered trade mark, and

(c) the unregistered trade mark relates to goods in respect of which the registered trade mark is assigned or transmitted.

Restrictions on assignment or transmission where multiple exclusive rights would be created.

31. (1) Notwithstanding anything in sections 29 and 30, a trade mark shall not be assignable or transmissible in a case in which as a result of the assignment or transmission there would in the circumstances subsist, whether under this Act or any other law, exclusive rights in more than one of the persons concerned to the use, in relation to the same goods or description of goods, of trade marks nearly resembling each other or of identical trade marks, if, having regard to the similarity of the goods and of the trade marks, the use of the trade marks in exercise of those rights would be likely to deceive or cause confusion:

Provided that an assignment or transmission shall not be deemed to be invalid under this sub-section if the exclusive rights subsisting as a result thereof in the persons concerned respectively are, having regard to limitations imposed thereon, such as not to be exercisable by two or more of those persons in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, within British India (otherwise than for export therefrom) or in relation to goods to be exported to the same market outside British India.

(2) The proprietor of a registered trade mark who proposes to assign it may submit to the Registrar in the prescribed manner a statement of case setting out the circumstances and the Registrar may issue to him a certificate stating whether, having regard to the similarity of the goods and of the trade marks referred to in the case, the proposed assignment would or would not be invalid under sub-section (1), and a certificate so issued shall, subject to appeal and unless it is shown that the certificate was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, be conclusive as to the validity or invalidity under sub-section (1) of the assignment in so far as such validity or invalidity depends upon the facts set out in the case, but, as regards a certificate in favour of validity, only if application for the registration under section 35 of the title of the person becoming entitled is made within six months from the date on which the certificate is issued.

Restrictions on assignment or transmission when exclusive rights would be created in different parts of British India.

32. Notwithstanding anything in sections 29 and 30, a trade mark shall not be assignable or transmissible in a case in which as a result of the assignment or transmission there would in the circumstances subsist, whether under this Act or any other law, an exclusive right in one of the persons concerned to the use of the trade mark limited to use in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, in any place in British India and an exclusive right in another of these persons to the use of a trade mark nearly resembling the first-mentioned trade mark or of an identical trade mark in relation to the same goods or description of goods limited to use in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, in any other place in British India:

Provided that in any such case, on application in the prescribed manner by the proprietor of a trade mark who proposes to assign it, or by a person who claims that a registered trade mark has been transmitted to him or to a predecessor in title of his since the commencement of this Act, the Registrar, if he is satisfied that in all the circumstances the use of the trade mark in exercise of the said rights would not be contrary to the public interest, may approve the assignment or transmission, and an assignment or transmission so approved shall not, unless it is shown that the approval was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, be deemed to be invalid under this section or section 31 if application for the registration under section 35 of the title of the person becoming entitled is made within six months from the date on which the approval is given or, in the case of a transmission, was made before that date.

Conditions for assignment otherwise than in connection with the goodwill of a business.

33. Where an assignment in respect of any goods of a trade mark which is at the time of the assignment used in a business in those goods, is made after the commencement of this Act otherwise than in connection with the goodwill of that business, the assignment shall not take effect unless the assignee, not later than the expiration of six months from the date on which the assignment is made or within such extended period, if any, as the Registrar may allow, applies to the Registrar for directions with respect to the advertisement of the assignment, and advertises it in such form and manner and within such period as the Registrar may direct.

Conditions for assignment and transmission of certification of trade marks and associated trade marks.

34. (1) A certification trade mark shall not be assignable or transmissible otherwise than with the consent of the Central Government, for which application shall be made in writing in the prescribed manner through the Registrar.

(2) Associated trade marks shall be assignable and transmissible only as a whole and not separately.

Registration of assignments and transmissions.

35. (1) Where a person becomes entitled by assignment or transmission to a registered trade mark, he shall apply in the prescribed manner to the Registrar to register his title, and the Registrar shall on receipt of the application and on proof of title to his satisfaction, register him as the proprietor of the trade mark in respect of the goods in respect of which the assignment or transmission has effect, and shall cause particulars of the assignment or transmission to be entered on the register.

(2) Except for the purposes of an appeal against a decision of the Registrar under sub-section (1) or of an application under section 46, a document or instrument in respect of which no entry has been made in the register in accordance with sub-section (1) shall not be admitted in evidence before any tribunal in proof of the title to a trade mark unless the tribunal otherwise directs.

CHAPTER VI.

USE OF TRADE MARKS AND REGISTERED USERS.

Proposed use of trade mark by company to be formed.

36. (1) No application for the registration of a trade mark in respect of any goods shall be refused, nor shall permission for such registration be withheld, on the ground only that it appears that the applicant does not use or propose to use the trade mark, if the Registrar is satisfied that a company is about to be formed and registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, and that the applicant intends to assign the trade mark to that company with a view to the use thereof in relation to those goods by the company. VII of 1913

(2) The tribunal may, in a case to which sub-section (1) applies, require the applicant to give security for the costs of any proceedings relative to any opposition or appeal, and in default of such security being duly given may treat the application as abandoned.

(3) Where in a case to which sub-section (1) applies, a trade mark in respect of any goods is registered in the name of an applicant who relies on intention to assign to a company, then, unless within such period as may be prescribed, or within such further period not exceeding six months as the Registrar may, on application being made to him in the prescribed manner, allow, the company has been registered as the proprietor of the trade mark in respect of those goods, the registration shall cease to have effect in respect thereof at the expiration of that period, and the Registrar shall amend the register accordingly.

Removal from register and imposition of limitations on ground of non-use.

37. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 38, a registered trade mark may be taken off the register in respect of any of the goods in respect of which it is registered on application in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved to a High Court or to the Registrar, on the ground either—

(a) that the trade mark was registered without any bona fide intention on the part of the applicant for registration that it should be used in relation to those goods by him or, in a case to which the provisions of section 26 apply, by the company concerned, and that there has in fact been no bona fide use of the trade mark in relation to those goods by any proprietor thereof for the time being up to a date one month before the date of the application; or

(b) that up to a date one month before the date of the application, a continuous period of five years or longer elapsed during which the trade mark was registered and during which there was no bona fide use thereof in relation to those goods by any proprietor thereof for the time being:

Provided that, except where the applicant has been permitted under sub-section (2) of section 10 to register an identical or nearly resembling trade mark in respect of the goods in question or where the tribunal is of opinion that he might properly be permitted so to register such a trade mark the tribunal may refuse an application made under clause (a) or clause (b) in relation to any goods, if it is shown that there has been, before the relevant date or during the relevant period, as the case may be, bona fide use of the trade mark by any proprietor thereof for the time being in relation to goods of the same description, being goods in respect of which the trade mark is registered.

(2) Where in relation to any goods in respect of which a trade mark is registered—

(a) the circumstances referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) are shown to exist so far as regards non-use of the trade mark in relation to goods to be sold, or otherwise traded in, in a particular place in British India (otherwise than for export from British India), or in relation to goods to be exported to a particular market outside British India, and

(b) a person has been permitted under sub-section (2) of section 10 to register an identical or nearly resembling trade mark in respect of those goods under a registration extending to use in relation to goods to be so sold, or otherwise traded in, or in relation to goods to be so exported, or the tribunal is of opinion that he might properly be permitted so to register such a trade mark, on application by that person in the prescribed manner to a High Court or to the Registrar, the tribunal may impose on the registration of the first-mentioned trade mark such limitations as it thinks proper for securing that that registration shall cease to extend to such use.

(3) An applicant shall not be entitled to rely for the purpose of clause (b) of sub-section (1) or of sub-section (2) on any non-use of a trade mark which is shown to have been due to special circumstances in the trade and not to any intention to abandon or not to use the trade mark in relation to the goods to which the application relates.

Defensive registration of well-known trade marks.

38. (1) Where a trade mark consisting of any invented word has become so well-known as respects any goods in relation to which it is registered and has been used, that the use thereof in relation to other goods would be likely to be taken as indicating a connection in the course of trade between those goods and a person entitled to use the trade mark in relation to the first-mentioned goods, then, notwithstanding that the proprietor registered in respect of the first-mentioned goods does not use or propose to use the trade mark in relation to those other goods and notwithstanding anything in section 37, the trade mark may on application in the prescribed manner by such proprietor be registered in his name in respect of those other goods as a defensive trade mark and, while so registered, shall not be liable to be taken off the register in respect of those goods under the said section.

(2) The registered proprietor of a trade mark may apply for the registration thereof in respect of any goods as a defensive trade mark notwithstanding that it is already registered in his name in respect of those goods otherwise than as a defensive trade mark, or may apply for the registration thereof in respect of any goods otherwise than as a defensive trade mark notwithstanding that it is already registered in his name in respect of those goods as a defensive trade mark, in lieu in each case of the existing registration.

(3) A trade mark registered as a defensive trade mark and that trade mark as otherwise registered in the name of the same proprietor shall, notwithstanding that the respective registrations are in respect of different goods, be deemed to be, and shall be registered as, associated trade marks.

(4) On application in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved to a High Court or to the Registrar, the registration of a trade mark as a defensive trade mark may be cancelled on the ground that the requirements of sub-section (1) are no longer satisfied in respect of any goods in relation to which the trade mark is registered in the name of the same proprietor otherwise than as a defensive trade mark, or may be cancelled as respects any goods in relation to which it is registered as a defensive trade mark on the ground that there is no longer any likelihood that the use of the trade mark in relation to those goods would be taken as giving the indication mentioned in sub-section (1).

(5) The Registrar may at any time cancel the registration as a defensive trade mark of a trade mark of which there is no longer any registration in the name of the same proprietor otherwise than as a defensive trade mark.

(6) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, the provisions of this Act shall apply in respect of the registration of trade marks as defensive trade marks and of trade marks so registered as they apply in other cases.

Registered users.

39. (1) A person other than the proprietor of a trade mark may be registered as a registered user thereof in respect of all or any of the goods in respect of which it is registered (otherwise than as a defensive trade mark) and either with or without conditions or restrictions.

(2) The permitted use of a trade mark shall be deemed to be use by the proprietor thereof, and shall be deemed not to be use by a person other than the proprietor, for any purpose for which such use is material under this Act or any other law.

Power of registered user to take proceedings against infringement.

40. (1) Subject to any agreement subsisting between the parties, a registered user of a trade mark shall be entitled to call upon the proprietor thereof to take proceedings to prevent infringement thereof, and if the proprietor refuses or neglects to do so within three months after being so called upon, the registered user may institute proceedings for infringement in his own name as if he were the proprietor, making the proprietor a defendant.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, a proprietor so added as defendant shall not be liable for any costs unless he enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings.

Application for registration as registered user.

41. (1) Where it is proposed that a person should be registered as a registered user of a trade mark, the proprietor and the proposed registered user shall make application in writing to the Registrar in the prescribed manner accompanied by an affidavit made by the proprietor, or by some person authorised to the satisfaction of the Registrar to act on his behalf,

(a) giving particulars of the relationship, existing or proposed, between the proprietor and the proposed registered user, including particulars showing the degree of control by the proprietor over the permitted use which their relationship will confer and whether it is a term of their relationship that the proposed registered user shall be the sole registered user or that there shall be any other restriction as to persons for whose registration as registered users application may be made;

(b) stating the goods in respect of which registration is proposed;

(c) stating any conditions or restrictions proposed with respect to the characteristics of the goods, to the mode or place of permitted use, or to any other matter;

(d) stating whether the permitted use is to be for a period or without limit of period, and, if for a period, the duration thereof;

and by such further documents, information or evidence as may be required by the Registrar or as may be prescribed.

(2) When the requirements of sub-section (1) have been complied with, if the Registrar is satisfied that in all the circumstances the use of the trade mark in respect of the proposed goods or any of them by the proposed registered user subject to any conditions or restrictions which the Registrar may think proper, would not be contrary to the public interest, the Registrar may register, subject as aforesaid, the proposed registered user as a registered user in respect of the goods as to which he is so satisfied.

(3) The Registrar shall refuse an application under this section if it appears to him that the grant thereof would tend to facilitate trafficking in a trade mark.

(4) The Registrar shall, if so requested by an applicant, take steps for securing that information given for the purposes of an application under this section (other than matter entered in the register) is not disclosed to rivals in trade.

(5) The Registrar shall issue notice in the prescribed manner—

(a) of the registration of a person as a registered user, to any other registered user of the trade mark;

(b) of an application under section 42, to the registered proprietor, and each registered user, (not being the applicant) of the trade mark.

Power to Registrar to vary or cancel registration as registered user.

42. Without prejudice to the provisions of section 46, the registration of a person as a registered user—

(a) may be varied by the Registrar as regards the goods in respect of which, or any conditions or restrictions subject to which, it has effect, on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of the registered proprietor of the trade mark;

(b) may be cancelled by the Registrar on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of the registered proprietor or of the registered user or of any other registered user of the trade mark;

(c) may be cancelled by the Registrar on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of any person on any of the following grounds, namely:—

(i) that the registered user has used the trade mark otherwise than by way of the permitted use, or in such a way as to cause or to be likely to cause, deception or confusion;

(ii) that the proprietor or the registered user misrepresented, or failed to disclose, some fact material to the application for the registration, or that the circumstances have materially changed since the date of the registration;

(iii) that the registration ought not to have been effected having regard to rights vested in the applicant by virtue of a contract in the performance of which he is interested;

(d) may be cancelled by the Registrar in respect of any goods in relation to which the trade mark is no longer registered.

Registered user not to have right of assignment or transmission.

43. Nothing in this Act shall confer on a registered user of a trade mark any assignable or transmissible right to the use thereof.

Use of one of associated or substantially identical trade marks equivalent to use of another.

44. (1) Where under the provisions of this Act use of a registered trade mark is required to be proved for any purpose, the tribunal may, if and so far as it shall think right, accept use of a registered associated trade mark, or of the trade mark with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity, as an equivalent for the use required to be proved.

(2) The use of the whole of a registered trade mark shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be also a use of any trade mark being a part thereof and registered in accordance with sub-section (1) of section 11 in the name of the same proprietor.

Use of trade mark for export trade, and use when form of trade connection changes.

45. (1) The application in British India of a trade mark to goods to be exported from British India, and any other act done in British India in relation to goods to be so exported which, if done in relation to goods to be sold or otherwise traded in within British India would constitute use of a trade mark therein, shall be deemed to constitute use of the trade mark in relation to those goods for any purpose for which such use is material under this Act or any other law.

(2) The use of a registered trade mark in relation to goods between which and the person using the mark any form of connection in the course of trade subsists shall not be deemed to be likely to cause deception or confusion on the ground only that the mark has been or is used in relation to goods between which and the person using the mark or any predecessor in his business different form of connection in the course of trade subsisted or subsists.

CHAPTER VII.

RECTIFICATION AND CORRECTION OF THE REGISTER.

Power to cancel or vary registration and to rectify the register.

46. (1) On application in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved to a High Court or to the Registrar, the tribunal may make such order as it may think fit for cancelling or varying the registration of a trade mark on the ground of any contravention of, or failure to observe a condition entered on the register in relation thereto.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the absence or omission from the register of any entry, or by any entry made in the register without sufficient cause, or by any entry wrongly remaining on the register, or by any error or defect in any entry in the register, may apply in the prescribed manner to a High Court or to the Registrar, and the tribunal may make such order for making, expunging or varying the entry as it may think fit.

(3) The tribunal may in any proceeding under this section decide any question that it may be necessary or expedient to decide in connection with the rectification of the register.

(4) A High Court or the Registrar, of its or his own motion, may, after giving notice in the prescribed manner to the parties concerned and after giving them an opportunity of being heard, make any order referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).

(5) Any order of the Court rectifying the register shall direct that notice of the rectification shall be served upon the Registrar in the prescribed manner who shall upon receipt of such notice rectify the register accordingly.

Correction of register.

47. (1) The Registrar may, on application made in the prescribed manner by the registered proprietor,—

(a) correct any error in the name, address or description of the registered proprietor of a trade mark;

(b) enter any change in the name, address or description of the person who is registered as proprietor of a trade mark;

(c) cancel the entry of a trade mark on the register;

(d) strike out any goods or classes of goods from those in respect of which a trade mark is registered;

(e) enter a disclaimer or memorandum relating to a trade mark which does not in any way extend the rights given by the existing registration of the trade mark.

(2) The Registrar may, on application made in the prescribed manner by a registered user of a trade mark, correct any error, or enter any change, in the name, address or description of the registered user.

Alteration of registered trade mark.

48. (1) The registered proprietor of a trade mark may apply in the prescribed manner to the Registrar for leave to add to or alter the trade mark in any manner not substantially affecting the identity thereof, and the Registrar may refuse leave or may grant it on such terms and subject to such limitations as he may think fit.

(2) The Registrar may cause an application under this section to be advertised in the prescribed manner in any case where it appears to him that it is expedient so to do, and where he does so, if within the prescribed time from the date of the advertisement any person gives notice to the Registrar in the prescribed manner of opposition to the application, the Registrar shall, after hearing the parties if so required, decide the matter.

(3) Where leave is granted under this section, the trade mark as altered shall be advertised in the prescribed manner, unless the application has already been advertised under sub-section (2).

Adaptation of entries in register to amended or substituted classification of goods.

49. (1) The Registrar shall not, in exercise of any power conferred on him under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 84, make any amendment of the register which would have the effect of adding any goods or classes of goods to those in respect of which a trade mark is registered (whether in one or more classes) immediately before the amendment is to be made, or of antedating the registration of a trade mark in respect of any goods:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply when the Registrar is satisfied that compliance therewith would involve undue complexity and that the addition or antedating, as the case may be, would not affect any substantial quantity of goods and would not substantially prejudice the rights of any person.

(2) A proposal so to amend the register shall be notified to the registered proprietor of the trade mark affected and advertised in the prescribed manner, and may be opposed before the Registrar by any person aggrieved on the ground that the proposed amendment contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1).

CHAPTER VIII.

CERTIFICATION TRADE MARKS.

Provisions of this Act applicable to certification trade marks.

50. Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, the other provisions of this Act except sections 6, 21, 22, 31, 32, 33, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42 and 43 and sub-section (2) of section 45 shall apply to certification trade marks as they apply to trade marks.

Certification trade mark not to be registered in name of person trading in goods certified thereby.

51. A mark shall not be registrable as a certification trade mark in the name of a person who carries on a trade in goods of the kind certified.

Determination whether a mark is a certification trade mark.

52. In determining whether a mark is adapted to distinguish in accordance with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 2, the tribunal may have regard to the extent to which—

(a) the mark is inherently so adapted to distinguish in relation to the goods in question; and

(b) by reason of the use of the mark or of any other circumstances, the mark is in fact so adapted to distinguish in relation to the goods in question.

Application for registration.

53. (1) An application for the registration of a mark as a certification trade mark shall be made to the Registrar in writing in the prescribed manner by the person proposed to be registered as the proprietor thereof, and accompanied by a draft of the regulations to be deposited under section 56.

(2) The provisions of section 14 shall have effect in relation to an application under this section as they have effect in relation to an application under the said section, except that for references therein to acceptance of an application there shall be substituted references to authorisation to proceed with the application.

(3) In dealing under the said provisions with an application under this section, the tribunal shall have regard to the like considerations, so far as relevant, as if the application were an application under section 14 and to any other considerations (not being matters within the competence of the Central Government under section 54) relevant to applications under this section, including the desirability of securing that a certification trade mark shall comprise some indication that it is a certification trade mark.

Consideration of application for registration by Central Government.

54. When authorisation to proceed with an application under section 53 has been given, the Registrar shall forward the application to the Central Government who shall consider the application with regard to the following matters, namely:

(a) whether the applicant is competent to certify the goods in respect of which the mark is to be registered;

(b) whether the draft of the regulations to be deposited under section 56 is satisfactory;

(c) whether in all the circumstances the registration applied for would be to the public advantage;

(i) direct that the application shall not be accepted; or

(ii) direct the Registrar to accept the application and approve the said draft of the regulations either without modification and unconditionally or subject to any conditions or limitations, or to any amendments or modifications of the application or of the regulations, which it thinks requisite having regard to any of the said matters;

but, except in the case of a direction for acceptance and approval without modification and unconditionally, the Central Government shall not decide the matter without giving to the applicant an opportunity of being heard:

Provided that the Central Government may, at the request of the applicant made with the concurrence of the Registrar, consider the application with regard to any of the said matters before authorisation to proceed with the application has been given, so however that the Central Government shall be at liberty to reconsider any matter on which it has given a decision under this proviso if any amendment or modification is thereafter made in the application or in the draft of the regulations.

Opposition to registration.

55. (1) When an application has been accepted, the Registrar shall, as soon as may be thereafter, cause the application as accepted to be advertised in the prescribed manner, and the provisions of section 15 shall have effect in relation to the registration of the mark as if the application had been an application under section 14:

Provided that, in deciding under the said provisions the tribunal shall have regard only to the considerations referred to in sub-section (3) of section 53, and a decision under the said provisions in favour of the applicant shall be conditional on the determination in his favour by the Central Government under sub-section (2) of this section of any opposition relating to any of the matters referred to in section 54

(2) When notice of opposition is given relating to any of the matters referred to in section 54, the Central Government shall, after hearing the parties, if so required, and considering any evidence, decide whether, and subject to what conditions or limitations or amendments or modifications, if any, of the application or of the regulations to be deposited under section 56, registration is, having regard to those matters, to be permitted.

Deposit of regulations governing the use of a certification trade mark.

56. (1) There shall be deposited at the Patent Office in respect of every mark registered as a certification trade mark regulations approved by the Central Government for governing the use thereof, which shall include provisions as to the cases in which the proprietor is to certify goods and to authorise the use of the certification trade mark, and may contain any other provisions which the Central Government may by general or special order require or permit to be inserted therein (including provisions conferring a right of appeal to the Registrar against any refusal of the proprietor to certify goods or to authorise the use of the certification trade mark in accordance with the regulations); and regulations so deposited shall be open to inspection in like manner as the register.

(2) The regulations so deposited may on the application of the registered proprietor be altered by the Registrar with the consent of the Central Government.

(3) The Central Government may cause such application to be advertised in any case where it appears to it expedient so to do, and where it does so, if within the time specified in the advertisement any person gives notice of opposition to the applicant, the Central Government shall not decide the matter without giving the parties an opportunity of being heard.

Right conferred by registration.

57. Subject to the provisions of sections 25, 26 and 58, the registration of a person as proprietor of a certification trade mark in respect of any goods shall, if valid, give to that person the exclusive right to the use of the certification trade mark in relation to those goods, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, that right shall be deemed to be infringed by any person who, not being the proprietor of the mark or a person authorised by him in that behalf under the regulations deposited under section 56, using it in accordance therewith, uses a mark identical with it or so nearly resembling it as to be likely to deceive or cause confusion, in the course of trade, in relation to any goods in respect of which it is registered, and in such manner as to render the use of the mark likely to be taken either—

(a) as being use as a certification trade mark; or

(b) to import a reference to some person having the right either as proprietor, or by his authorisation under the said regulations, to use the mark, or to goods certified by the proprietor.

No infringement in certain circumstances.

58. (1) The right to the use of a certification trade mark given under section 57 by registration shall be subject to any conditions or limitations entered on the register, and shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid in any mode, in relation to goods to be sold or otherwise traded in in any place, in relation to goods to be exported to any market, or in any other circumstances, to which having regard to any such limitations, the registration does not extend.

(2) The said right to the use of a certification trade mark shall not be deemed to be infringed by the use of any such mark as aforesaid by any person—

(a) in relation to goods certified by the proprietor of the mark if, as to those goods or a bulk of which they form part, the proprietor or another in accordance with his authorisation under the relevant regulations has applied the mark and has not subsequently removed or obliterated it, or the proprietor has at any time expressly or impliedly consented to the use of the mark, or

(b) in relation to goods adapted to form part of, or to be accessory to, other goods in relation to which the mark has been used without infringement of the right given as aforesaid or might for the time being be so used, if the use of the mark is reasonably necessary in order to indicate that the goods are so adapted and neither the purpose nor the effect of the use of the mark is to indicate otherwise than in accordance with the fact that the goods are certified by the proprietor:

Provided that clause (a) shall not apply to the case of use consisting of the application of any such mark as aforesaid to any goods, notwithstanding that they are such goods as are mentioned in that clause if such application is contrary to the said regulations.

(3) Where a certification trade mark is one of two or more registered certification trade marks which are identical or nearly resemble each other, the use of any of those marks in exercise of the right to the use of that mark given by registration, shall not be deemed to be an infringement of the right so given to the use of any other of those marks.

Cancellation or varying of registration.

59. (1) The Central Government may, on the application in the prescribed manner of any person aggrieved or on the recommendation of the Registrar, and after giving the proprietor an opportunity of opposing the application or recommendation, make such order as it thinks fit for expunging or varying any entry in the register relating to a certification trade mark, or for varying the deposited regulations, on any of the following grounds, namely:—

(a) that the proprietor is no longer competent, in the case of any of the goods in respect of which the mark is registered, to certify those goods;

(b) that the proprietor has failed to observe any provision of the deposited regulations to be observed on his part;

(c) that it is no longer to the public advantage that the mark should be registered;

(d) that it is requisite for the public advantage that, if the mark remains registered, the regulations should be varied; and neither a High Court nor the Registrar shall have any jurisdiction to make an order under section 46 on any of those grounds.

(2) The Registrar shall rectify the register and the deposited regulations in such manner as may be requisite for giving effect to an order made under sub-section (1).

Costs not to be awarded in certain cases.

60. The Registrar shall have no power to award costs to or against any party on an appeal to him against a refusal of the proprietor of a certification trade mark to certify goods or to authorise the use of the mark.

Decisions of Central Government to be final.

61. Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Chapter, every decision of the Central Government under this Chapter shall be final.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the use in British India in relation to a trade mark of the word "registered", or of any other expression referring whether expressly or impliedly to registration, shall be deemed to import a reference to registration in the register, except—

Validity of certain assessments and proceedings made under Act XI of 1922.

9. No assessment made in accordance with sub-section (5) of section 64 of the said Act before the 30th day of December, 1939, and no proceedings taken in the course of, or for the purposes of, so making any assessment before that date shall be or continue to be invalid by reason of anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 64 of the said Act.

Repeal of Ordinance IX of 1939.

10. The Income-tax (Removal of Difficulties and Validating) Ordinance, 1939, is hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The main object of this Bill is to legislate permanently for the matter dealt with by the Income-tax (Removal of Difficulties and Validating) Ordinance, 1939. The issue of this Ordinance was necessitated by a recent decision of the Bombay High Court regarding the jurisdiction of certain Income-tax Officers.

The second object is to provide for the provisional collection of income-tax and super-tax in case the Finance Bill has not been passed by the Legislature by the 1st April of any year.

The Bill also provides for the calculation of depreciation in respect of ocean-going ships on the basis of the cost of the assets instead of on the written-down value of the assets.

In addition to the above points, a few minor defects in the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, as amended by the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act of 1939, are also dealt with.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—Sub-clause (iii) of clause (b) of section 11 of the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1939, has not yet come into force. The amendment which it is desired to make in section 10 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, is accordingly being effected by an amendment of the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1939, and will not take effect until, as provided in section 1(2) of that Act, this portion of section 11 of the Act takes effect. The amendment is intended to secure that in the case of shipping companies alone, when the change over from the cost basis of depreciation to the written-down value basis takes place, the cost basis shall be retained.

Clause 3.—This corrects an obvious mistake in section 35 where no provision is made for the correction of a mistake in a refund order.

Clause 4.—Sub-clause (a) corrects the omission to provide for the disclosure of confidential information to the professional bodies on whom the duty of taking disciplinary action under sub-section (3) of section 61 of the Act may fall. Sub-clause (b) corrects a printing error.

Clause 5.—This corrects an oversight in section 58S. It is improper that refunded contributions should be charged with super-tax as they were not exempted from super-tax in the first instance.

Clauses 6 and 9—reproduce the provisions of the Income-tax (Removal of Difficulties and Validating) Ordinance, 1939, which is limited in duration to six months.

Clause 7—makes the necessary provision for the provisional collection of income-tax and super-tax where the Finance Bill has not been passed by the Legislature by the 1st day of April.

Clause 8.—There is a defect in paragraph (b) of the second rule of the Schedule. The rule as it stands takes no account of the fact that the starting point of a computation may be a deficit.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since 1929, when the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research was established as a result of a recommendation of the Royal Commission on Agriculture in India, the Central Government have provided grants aggregating Rs. 84 lakhs for expenditure by the Council on schemes of general research. The Council has practically no source of income other than the contributions from the Central Revenues, which are unstable depending on the state of the finances of the Central Government. The grants so far received though not inconsiderable have proved insufficient to meet the growing requirements of the research necessary to serve a vast agricultural country like India. In order to place the Council in a more secure financial position and to provide for the steady development of research a larger and more stable income which would comparatively be unaffected by the financial vicissitudes of the Central Government is considered necessary. The Governing Body accordingly approved a proposal in July, 1939, to obtain funds from an export cess, levied at the rate of ½ per cent. on the value of certain agricultural commodities which are not already subject to an export duty or cess. The proceeds of the proposed cess are estimated to amount in a normal year to about Rs. 14 lakhs. The Bill is designed to implement this proposal.

BILL

Further to amend the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XL of 1920.

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Aligarh Muslim University (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

Amendment of section 12A, Act XL of 1920.

2. In section 12A of the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, the words "Intermediate Colleges and" and the words "in the Aligarh District" shall be omitted. XL of 1920.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, as it stands on the Statute book at present, debars the University from recognising schools outside the Aligarh District. It has always been the aim of the University to have outside schools under its fold and it is with this object that it is proposed to amend section 12A of the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, in order to bring it to the level of the Benares Hindu University. As the intermediate classes now form part of the University and there is no separate Intermediate College advantage has been taken to delete the words "Intermediate Colleges" in section 12A.

1. The Bengal Children Act extends to the town of Calcutta, the suburbs and the port of Calcutta, the municipality of Howrah, the police-station of Bally, Jagacha, Sankrail and Domjur in the district of Howrah and the police-station of Baranagar, Barrackpore, Titta-garh, Noapara, Khardah, Naihati and Jagatdal in the district of the 24-Parganas. The following sections of the Act have not yet been brought into force in any part of Bengal:—

Section 27(1), (i), (ii), (iii), (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f).

Section 27(2), (a), (b), (c), (d) and (f).

Section 28 (2).

The Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act is in force in the town, suburbs and port of Calcutta and at Panihati in the district of the 24-Parganas.

The Reformatory Schools Act applies to that part of the province in which the Bengal Children Act is not in force.

Boy offenders dealt with by Courts in the Children Act area are sent to the Reformatory and Industrial Schools at Alipore and those from outside this area to the Reformatory School at Hazaribagh in the Province of Bihar under the provisions of the Reformatory Schools Act.

2. During the year 1938, 4,007 children were dealt with by the Central Children Court, Calcutta. The great majority of these were sent up for offences under section 66 of the Calcutta Police Act; 26 were prosecuted under the Bengal Children Act, 23 under the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act and about 200 for theft and similar offences under the Indian Penal Code.

Eighty of these children were sent to a school or other place of custody, distributed as follows:—

Reformatory School, Alipore	...	50
Industrial School, Alipore	...	16
Gobinda Kumar Home, Panihati	...	6
Salvation Army Home, Behala	...	5
Society for the Protection of Children in India	...	1
All-Bengal Women's Industrial Home	...	2
Total		80

Others were fined or made over to their guardians, while most of those sent up under the Police Act were warned and discharged.

3. The Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Alipore, which are for boys only, are wholly maintained by Government. The Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home at Behala, an aided institution, provides a Reformatory School for girls.

The following have been notified as places of suitable custody under section 28(1) of the Bengal Children Act and under section 27(2)(b) of the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act: —

(a) The Gobinda Kumar Home, Panihati.

(b) The Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home, Behala.

Fairburn were the Assistant Inspectors. The Inspectress of Schools, Presidency and Burdwan Divisions, was the Assistant Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools for Girls.

The places of suitable custody recoginsed by Government as eligible for grants are inspected by four ladies appointed for the purpose.

Administration.

5. The following is a brief summary of the activities of the various institutions working under these Acts: —

(1) Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Alipore.

These schools, which have been established by the Government under section 6(1) of the Bengal Children Act, are under the general administrative control of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, while their immediate management is vested in the Superintendent and a Managing Committee appointed under section 7(1) of the Act

The combined institutions have accommodation for 194 boys and the entire cost is met from the Provincial Revenue.

On the 31st December 1938, the number of boys in the Reformatory School was 219 against the same number in 1937 and 213 in 1936, and in the Industrial School the number was 58 against 54 in 1937 and 59 in 1936. The total number of boys in the two schools was thus 277 as against 273 in 1937 and 272 in 1936.

The number of fresh admissions during 1938 was 74 in all, viz., 54 in the Reformatory School and 20 in the Industrial School, of whom 61 had been convicted of theft or similar offences.

One hundred and sixty-two of the boys in the two schools on the 31st December 1938 were Hindus and 111 Muslims and there were 4 Christians in the Reformatory School but none in the Industrial School. The number of Bengali-speaking boys increased from 114 to 124 while the number of Hindi-speaking boys decreased from 77 to 71. The number of Urdu-speaking boys rose from 60 to 62. Of the 277 boys in the two schools, only 124 belonged properly to Bengal while the rest were inhabitants of other provinces but were either domiciled in Bengal or had come there temporarily mainly from Bihar, Orissa and United Provinces.

Twenty-eight boys were realeased from the Reformatory School and 9 from the Industrial School on the expiry of their terms. Twenty-three of the boys of the Reformatory School and 7 of the Industrial School were released on license. Of the boys released during 1938, 19 were made over to the Bengal After-Care Association and the rest to their guardians.

Eight boys escaped from the Reformatory School and one from the Industrial School. Of the first eight, two escaped from outside hospitals to which they had been sent for treatment of Tuberculosis, two did not return after leave granted to visit their homes and the others escaped from the school premises. Two were recaptured.

Primary education is imparted up to class V and the boys also receive vocational training in tinsmithy, blacksmithy, weaving, carpentry and tailoring. The education of boys is conducted through the medium of Bengali, Urdu and Hindi in accordance with the approved syllabus. The results of the annual examinations were good. Facilities were given for moral and religious instruction and observance. As in previous years, boys whose conduct had been found to be satisfactory were allowed to visit their homes and other places of interest during holidays and on various other occasions. With the exception of one boy all others who were given this privilege returned to the school in time. This controlled freedom was found to have a very beneficial effect on the boys.

The food supplied was of good quality and the general health of the boys was good owing to the good sanitation. The boys took part in regular games and physical exercises including drill and gymnastics.

The total expenditure on the schools in 1938 was Rs. 60,244 against Rs. 56,791 in 1937, and the average cost of maintaining and educating each pupil was Rs. 223 against Rs. 208 in 1937. The schools have been doing good work under conditions which are in many respects far from ideal. Lack of space has become chronic and is preventing the proper working of the Bengal Children Act. Government have decided therefore to open a new and enlarged institution in rural surroundings near Calcutta, and a site is being acquired for the purpose.

The girls in the Home do fancy work of all kinds and make tea bags, bank bags and jharans for business firms. They are paid according to the quantity and quality of the work done and the balance goes to the Home.

The health of the girls was good on the whole.

No girl dealt with under the Bengal Children or the Immoral Traffic Acts was sent to the Home during the year under review.

The After-Care Home called "the All-Bengal Industrial Institute" at Dum Dum Cantonment, established by the Union, also caters for Indian girls dealt with under the two Acts. Its present capacity is 30 girls; and the total number of girls at the close of the year was 23. There were 2 new admissions. Both of these were Hindus and dealt with under the Immoral Traffic Act.

The inmates of the Home receive general education and they are taught weaving and needlework and are also given training as girl-guides. Two girls were boarded out for training as teachers and 3 for training as nurses at a maternity home.

The health of the girls was fairly good on the whole.

The cost of maintaining the Home during the year was about Rs. 4,000. The Union received a Government grant of Rs. 300 during the year. The average cost of maintaining a girl was Rs. 26.

(8) Borstal School, Bankura.

This school which has been established by Government under section 3(1) of the Bengal Borstal Schools Act, 1928, is under the general administrative control of the Inspector-General of Prisons, Bengal, while its immediate management is vested in the Superintendent of the School and a visiting committee. There were 263 boys remaining in the school at the commencement of the year under report against 312 in the previous year. One hundred and sixteen boys were admitted during the year against 117 in 1937 and 131 boys were discharged from all causes during the year against 166 in the previous year, leaving a balance of 248 at the close of the year.

Boys on admission are classified into several "House", "Groups" and "Grades" according to age, conduct, health and sportsmanship These methods of classification have helped to improve the conduct of the inmates and to create a spirit of competition and a sense of corporate ideal amongst them. The general principles followed are those of the English Borstal system and every effort is made to reform these boys and return them to society as healthy and useful citizens.

The daily routine is so arranged that the inmates are actively engaged from morning till bed-time. It comprises literary and moral education, vocational, industrial and physical training.

Boys are taught reading, writing and simple arithmetic. The general standard aimed at is primary, but those who are fit for higher education are coached up to the Matriculation standard. Instruction is imparted in Bengali, Hindi, Urdu and English. They are also trained under the guidance of paid instructors in some useful industries such as tailoring, book-binding, weaving, carpentry, smithy, carpet-making, durrie-weaving, net-bag-making, cane and bamboo works, agriculture, horticulture, dairy and poultry farming. Due attention was also paid as usual to the physical culture and games of the boys. They also got regular exercises in drill, bratachari and scouting.

The boys were allowed all reasonable facilities for religious observances under the guidance of Hindu, Muhammadan and Christian religious instructors according to their respective denominations.

The visiting committee had 13 meetings in the school during the year. The members of the committee regularly visited the school and took keen interest in its welfare.

(9) Bengal After-Care Association for juveniles and adolescents.

Admissions in the hostel attached to the Association during the year 1938 were 140 as against 193 in 1937, and employment was found for 35 boys. The health of the inmates was good. Educational instruction is given in the night school. There were 21 escapes from the hostel during the year. This was partly due to the removal of the hostel outside the city. Apart from the escapes the conduct of boys in the hostel improved.

The Association received the usual maintenance grant of Rs. 2,400 from Government. The total receipts of the Association during the year under review were Rs. 6,105-2 against an expenditure of Rs. 6,252-9-3.

The mofussil work of the Association is under-taken by several District Associations. There are Associations in the district of Bankura, Birbhum, Khulna, Midnapore, Mymensingh and Dinajpur. The work done by the Mymensingh District Association was particularly creditable.

Probation work.

During the year 1938, 319 children, dealt with under the Bengal Children Act and the Immoral Traffic Act, were on proabtion under the charge of four probation officers (two males and two females) against 351 in the previous year.

Probationers were visited at regular intervals and their conduct and progress were carefully watched by the probation officers, who by keeping in personal touch with their charges and by means of friendly advice and moral persuasion tried to bring about a new and healthy outlook of life amongst them. Most of the probationers have been making satisfactory progress and it may be reasonably expected that many of them will turn out to be useful members of society.

Probation officers had also to make initial inquiries into the antecedents, relations, conduct, etc., of all the accused tried in the Juvenile Court. They maintained records of every case, prepared monthly reports and charts which were shown to the Magistrate.

The Presidency Magistrate of the Central Children Court visited probationers from time to time for the purpose of gaining personal knowledge regarding them and the work done by the probation officers.

By order of the Governor,

H. J. TWYNAM,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1270A.—11th April 1940.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 241 of the Government of India Act, 1935, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules:—

The Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940.

Short title and extent.

1. (1) These rules may be called the Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940.

(2) They shall apply to all salaried appointments made after the 17th March 1939 in the Provincial Services, Subordinate Services, offices and posts under the Crown in connection with the affairs of the Province of Bengal, except appointments to—

(a) posts recruited with non-Indian personnel,

(b) services and posts recruited for employment only in the Chittagong Hill Tracts and the district of Darjeeling,

(c) the personnel of the Eastern Frontier Rifles (Bengal Battalion),

(d) Launch establishments (non-clerical),

(e) the posts of Poddars,

(f) all posts (other than those of process servers) the initial pay of which does not exceed Rs. 15 or the maximum pay of which does not exceed Rs. 20,

(g) such other services and posts as may, from time to time, by general or special order, be exempted by the Provincial Government from the operation of these rules.

Rules not to apply to promotions.

2. (1) These rules do not extend to promotions, in the making of which the sole consideration shall continue to be merit, with due regard to seniority of service.

(2) The appointment of an officer holding a temporary post to a permanent post in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office, shall be treated as direct recruitment and not promotion for the purpose of these rules:

Provided that, subject to the requirements of these rules, persons employed in temporary posts should be given prior consideration for appointment in permanent posts.

Fractional quantities between Muslims and non-Muslims.

3. (1) In the application of these rules, fractional quantities below one-half shall be disregarded and fractional quantities above one-half shall be counted as "one" for the purpose of determining the number of vacancies to be filled by Muslims and non-Muslims.

(2) Where fractions of one-half occur, the benefit shall, where practicable, be given alternately to Muslims and non-Muslims.

Reservation for Muslims and non-Muslims.

4. (1) Of all vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment in any service, department or office or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, 50 per cent. shall, until parity is reached, be reserved for Muslims, and 50 per cent. for non-Muslims:

Provided that in any such service, department or office, or branch of such service, department or office, in which vacancies are filled partly by promotion and partly by direct recruitment, the number of vacancies so reserved shall, until parity is reached, be increased or decreased, as the case may be, by one-half of the number of promotions of non-Muslims or Muslims, as the case may be, in excess of 50 per cent. of the total number of promotions in that service, department or office, or branch of that service, department or office.

(2) After parity has been reached, future recruitment to fill such vacancies shall be directed to the maintenance of parity between Muslims and non-Muslims.

Explanation 1.—When a service consists of different grades of officers, with a distinct scale of pay, each such grade shall be treated as a branch of the service, e.g., the Subordinate Police Service consists of Inspectors, Sub-Inspectors, Assistant Sub-Inspectors, Head Constables and Constables. Each such branch shall be treated as a separate unit for the purpose of these rules.

Explanation 2.—(1) Each department or office shall, for the purposes of these rules, be treated as consisting ordinarily of three main branches, namely, clerical (ordinary), clerical (special) and non-clerical.

(2) Where there are Upper and Lower Divisions of any department or office, each division shall, except for determining whether parity has been reached, be treated separately for the purposes of these rules.

Explanation 3.—(1) "Parity" means equality in the number of permanent posts in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office, between Muslims and non-Muslims, and shall be deemed to have been reached as soon as the number of Muslims therein is, as nearly as possible, 50 per cent. of the total permanent strength.

(2) In determining whether parity has been reached, the total number of permanent posts in the service, department or office, or branch of the service, department or office, shall be taken into consideration, whether the cadre consists of an Upper and Lower Division or not.

Illustration of counterbalance.—Ten vacancies in the Bengal Junior Civil Service are filled by promotion of 1 Muslim and 9 non-Muslims. Twenty vacancies in the Bengal Junior Civil Service are to be filled by direct recruitment. They will be filled by 8 non-Muslims and 12 Muslims, i.e., 10 Muslims on account of the 50 per cent. reservation, plus 2 Muslims which represents one-half of the excess of 9 (promotions of non-Muslims) over 5 (half the total number of promotion), provided parity in the Bengal Junior Civil Service has not been reached.

Application of counterbalance.

5. (1) The principle of counterbalance as enunciated in the proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 4 shall be applied to those services, departments or offices, or branches of those services, departments or offices in which vacancies are filled partly by promotion and partly by direct recruitment.

(2) The principle of counterbalance shall be applied only within the service, department or office, or branch of the service, department or office in which the promotions are made.

(3) The principle of counterbalance shall be applied only in case of permanent promotions from a lower to a higher service, or from a lower division or branch to a higher division or branch of the same service, department or office.

Procedure in certain cases of dismissal or discharge.

6. Where an officer appointed to a permanent post on probation is dismissed or discharged before confirmation on grounds of inefficiency or unsuitability, or where an officer appointed to a temporary post is dismissed or discharged on similar grounds, and the vacancy is filled by direct recruitment, such vacancy shall, notwithstanding the provisions of rule 4, be filled by a member of the same community as such officer, and no deduction shall be made on that account from the number of vacancies reserved to be filled by members of that community in subsequent appointments.

Reservation for Scheduled Castes.

7. (1) Of all vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, 15 per cent. shall, if qualified candidates are available, be reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes:

Provided that the number of vacancies so reserved shall not exceed 30 per cent. of the total number of vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment of non-Muslims.

(2) The fractional vacancies, if any, which under the provisions of sub-rule (1) are to be filled by the members of the Scheduled Castes, shall accumulate, and one vacancy shall be reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes as soon as the fractional amount exceeds one-half, provided that each appointment shall count as "one" for the purpose of determining the next vacancy which is to be filled by a member of the Scheduled Castes.

Illustration—

In	1	non-Muslim vacancy	Scheduled Castes get ·30
In	2	non-Muslim vacancies	ditto ·60
In	3	ditto	ditto ·90
In	4	ditto	ditto 1·20
In	5	ditto	ditto 1·50
In	6	ditto	ditto 1·80
In	7	ditto	ditto 2·10
In	8	ditto	ditto 2·40
In	9	ditto	ditto 2·70
In	10	ditto	ditto 3·00

Scheduled Castes will thus get the 2nd, 6th, 9th, 12th, 16th, etc., vacancies reserved for non-Muslims.

(3) Vacancies shall be reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes under sub-rules (1) and (2) until the number of Scheduled Castes equals 15 per cent. of the total number of permanent posts in the service, department or office, or branch of the service, department or office, whether the cadre consists of an Upper and Lower Division or not, and thereafter future recruitment shall be directed to the maintenance of this percentage.

Explanation.—For the purposes of these rules, the castes, races or tribes, or parts of or group within castes, races or tribes specified in Part III of the Schedule to the Government of India (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1936, shall be deemed to be Scheduled Castes, and no member of any caste, race or tribe not included in the said Part of that Schedule shall be appointed to fill any vacancy reserved under this rule for members of the Scheduled Castes.

Minority communities and backward classes.

8. In respect of vacancies to be filled in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office, to which these rules apply, by direct recruitment of non-Muslims, other than members of the Scheduled Castes, special attention shall, if qualified candidates are available, be paid to the interests of Anglo-Indians, Indian Christians, Buddhists, Hill Tribes of the Himalayas and foot hills, and of the Chittagong Hill Tracts and aboriginal tribes in general.

Direct recruitment by competitive examination.

9. Where direct recruitment is made by competitive examination in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, the vacancies reserved shall be filled from amongst the qualified candidates of each community in the order of merit of such qualified candidates:

Provided that, if the qualified candidates of any community are insufficient in any year to fill all the posts reserved for that community, the vacancies left unfilled shall, without regard being had to the interest of any community, be filled in accordance with the result of the competitive examination by qualified candidates of other communities, in order of merit, and no deduction on that account shall be made from the vacancies reserved to be filled by competitive examination in that service, department or office, or branch of that service, department or office in subsequent years.

Explanation 1.—In this rule, "qualified candidate" means a candidate who has qualified at the competitive examination and possesses the other qualifications, if any, prescribed, or approved, for the appointment by the Provincial Government.

Explanation 2.— Direct recruitment is made by competitive examination when this is the recognised method of recruitment, and where qualification at such an examination is a condition precedent to, and is a qualification prescribed for, appointment.

Direct recruitment otherwise than by competitive examination.

10. Where direct recruitment is made otherwise than by competitive examination in any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply, the appointing authority shall, if qualified candidates are available, secure that the vacancies reserved for each community are filled in accordance with these rules:

Provided that, if the qualified candidates of any community are insufficient in any year to fill all the vacancies reserved for that community, the vacancies left unfilled shall, without regard being had to the interest of any community, be filled by qualified candidates of other communities, in order of merit, as determined by the appointing authority and no deduction shall be made on that account from the vacancies reserved to be filled under this rule in that service, department or office, or branch of that service, department or office in subsequent years.

Explanation.—In this rule "qualified candidate" means a candidate who possesses the minimum academic qualifications and satisfies the other requirement prescribed, or approved, for the appointment by the Provincial Government.

Temporary posts.

11. Recruitment for temporary posts shall be made in accordance with these rules:

Provided that in the case of temporary appointments for a period exceeding or likely to exceed six months, where appointments are made according to the proviso to rule 7 or rule 8, a fresh attempt to secure qualified candidates of the community concerned shall be made at the end of three months from the date of appointment.

Inspection.

12. It shall be the duty of all officers at the time of inspection of the personnel of any service, or of any branch of any service, or inspection of any department or office, or branch of any department or office to which these rules apply to examine first and foremost the application of these rules, and to ascertain and report if the provisions of these rules have been observed.

Irregular orders of appointment to be cancelled.

13. Any appointment made contrary to the provisions of these rules shall, on being brought to the notice of the appointing authority, be cancelled by that authority.

Periodical returns.

14. (1) Every appointing authority shall, by the 10th day of April and 10th day of October in each year, submit to the Home (Appointment) Department of the Government of Bengal, either direct or through such authority as may be prescribed, a return for the half-year ending on the 31st March or 30th September, as the case may be, in the prescribed form.

(2) Where returns are submitted through any department or the head of any department or office, they shall be submitted in duplicate, and consolidated returns, together with one copy of the original returns, shall be submitted by such department or the head of such department or office to the Home (Appointment) Department by the 20th day of April or the 20th day of October, as the case may be, in each year.

In the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, returns shall be submitted through the channel previously prescribed for returns of employment of Muslims and members of the Scheduled Castes and other communities.

(3) Returns shall be submitted in respect of each service, department or office, or branch of each service, department or office. Age groups will be shown for Provincial Services only.

Existing qualifications, method of entry and rules of recruitment.

15. (1) Existing provisions of rules regulating the recruitment to any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply shall be deemed to be cancelled in so far as they are inconsistent with these rules, but otherwise such provisions shall continue to be in force until altered, repealed or amended by the competent authority.

(2) Every proposal for the alteration of the existing qualifications prescribed for entry into any service, department or office, or branch of any service, department or office to which these rules apply shall be referred to the Bengal Public Service Commission and no such alteration shall be made except by, or with the consent of, the Provincial Government.

II. Each year the Excise Commissioner shall publish by notice in the Calcutta Gazette, by advertisement in newspapers and otherwise, the number of appointments to be made and the number of candidates to be selected from any particular section of the community and shall instruct the Collector of Excise, Calcutta and District Officers, to publish notices locally, inviting applications. Copies of the notices shall be sent to the principal local associations and to schools, colleges and other similar institutions.

III. The notices shall state (1) that printed application forms can be obtained from the District Officers free of cost, (2) that candidates must possess the qualifications specified in rule IV, and (3) that application should be submitted in the form annexed to these rules on or before a date to be specified to the District Officers, and, in case of candidates seeking nominations in Calcutta, to the Collector of Excise, Calcutta. It shall also be made clear in the notices that canvassing is forbidden and that any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application through relatives, friends, persons of influence, or officials of Government, will disqualify him for appointment; that spontaneous recommendations from persons interested in the candidates, or otherwise known to them, will be disregarded and that a candidate who applies from more than one district will automatically be disqualified.

IV. The qualifications required for appointment as Sub-Inspector of Excise are:—

(a) That he is a British subject or has been made eligible by declaration under section 262 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to hold such an appointment.

(b) That he either has a permanent residence or domicile in the district from which he seeks nomination, or belongs to a family which is resident or permanently domiciled in the district.

(c) That he is not under 20 or over 25 years of age on the 1st August of the year in which he is seeking nomination.

(d) That he is of good character and furnishes with his application (1) copies of his University certificates and diplomas and (2) at least two certificates, written not more than one year prior to the date of his application, from responsible persons, not related to him by marriage or otherwise, testifying to his private character in addition to any certificates furnished from persons connected with his College or University.

(e) That he is a graduate of a British or Indian University or in the case of a domiciled European or Anglo-Indian, that he has passed the Senior Cambridge Examination or its equivalent:

Provided that, in special cases and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Excise Commissioner may relax the rule regarding educational requirements, with the approval of the Provincial Government.

(f) That he is of sound health, good physique and active habits, free from organic defects or physical infirmity and is not less than 5′ 3″ in height and 30″ round the chest after full expiration with minimum chest expansion of 2″.

(g) That he produces satisfactory evidence of his age, viz., his birth certificate granted under the Birth Registration Act, or his baptismal certificate. If no such certificate is forthcoming, an entry recording his age in a Matriculation, School leaving or Senior Cambridge Examination Certificate may be accepted as sufficient evidence.

V. A list of applications received shall be prepared in each District Excise office in which the name of each candidate shall be entered. Against the names of those found ineligible, the word "Rejected" shall be written by the District Officer. Such applicants shall be debarred from presenting themselves for interview, and should be informed accordingly, without delay.

VI. All candidates considered eligible shall be called on to appear at their own expense before the District Officer, on a date to be fixed by him, and to produce original certificates of age, educational qualifications and character at that time:

Provided that, in case the number of qualified candidates is unduly large, the District Officer may select for interview those candidates from each section of the community who seem to him to be best qualified.

VII. The District Officer (in case of Calcutta, the Collector of Excise) shall personally interview the candidates thus summoned and in consultation with the Superintendent or Inspector-in-charge of the district will nominate candidates of different communities in accordance with instructions given by the Excise Commissioner under rule II. He will submit the list of candidates in order of preference, stating, against each name, the qualifications and grounds for selection. Along with the list he shall send the applications of the selected candidates, and their certificates, testimonials, and recommendations, in original.

VIII. On receipt of the nominations from the District Officers, the Excise Commissioner shall examine the list to see if the rules have been properly observed and shall then summon for interview by the Selection Committee, such candidates as appear to him to be duly qualified and nominated.

IX. The Bengal Public Service Commission shall perform the functions of the Selection Committee under these rules, the Excise Commissioner sitting with them for the purpose.

X. (1) The Selection Committee, after interviewing the candidates, will select those deemed suitable for Government appointment and will draw up a list of the selected candidates in order of merit.

(2) The Excise Commissioner shall make his final selection on the basis of this list, having regard to any rules or instructions issued by the Provincial Government regulating the percentage of recruitment of Muhammadans or any other class of candidates, and to the result of the medical test prescribed in sub-rule (3).

(3) Every selected candidate who is not already in the Government service shall, before final appointment, be required to attend before a Medical Board or an officer in medical charge of a civil station and submit to a medical test similar to that prescribed for candidates for a provincial service.

XI. All candidates finally selected shall, within three months of their first appointment, furnish security to the extent of Rs. 300 in Government Promissory Notes, Post Office Savings Bank deposit, or Postal Cash Certificates, to the satisfaction of the Excise Commissioner, and shall execute a bond in the Excise Department Form No. 220. The Excise Commissioner may, in his discretion, exempt any Sub-Inspector wholly or partly from the obligation of furnishing security, and may extend the time limit of three months.

XII. All Sub-Inspectors appointed under rule XIII shall be on probation for one year, and those otherwise appointed for two years. This prescribed period of probation may be extended in accordance with Finance Department notification No. 779T.F., dated the 14th June 1928, or any subsequent modification of this notification. The officer shall not be confirmed until he has passed the prescribed departmental examination and until his departmental work has been found satisfactory. If he fails to earn confirmation within the prescribed period of probation, his service may be dispensed with.

XIII. Notwithstanding anything contained in rules II to VIII and rule X, the Excise Commissioner, in consultation with the Selection Committee, may promote petty officers of Excise who have shown exceptional ability and who possess adequate knowledge of English, Law and Accounts, to the rank of Sub-Inspectors. Not more than 15 per cent. of the vacancies in any one year shall be filled up in this manner.

XIV. In every year each Superintendent or Inspector of Excise in charge will submit to the District Officer (and in case of Calcutta, the Collector of Excise, Calcutta), the name of not more than three petty officers serving under him whom he recommends for promotion to the rank of Sub-Inspector. Petty officers recommended for promotion must have served with credit for three full years in the department and they must have a good general education and a sufficient knowledge of English.

The District Officers shall interview the officers thus recommended for promotion and shall examine their service books before submission of their recommendations. The Deputy Commissioners of Excise in charge of the Excise Intelligence Bureau, and the Central Detective Department will, in a similar manner, submit their recommendations in respect of the petty officers of Excise employed under them.

Recommendations for promotion of petty officers shall be submitted with the District Officer's nominations for direct appointment. If a petty officer has previously been recommended but has not been promoted the District Officer or Deputy Commissioner should repeat the recommendation unless he considers the officer no longer fit for promotion.

Orders and Notifications by the Government of India republished for general information.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

New Delhi, the 28th March 1940.

No. F. 26 (1)-R. II/39.—The following Rules made by the Secretary of State for India are published for general information:—

THE SUPERIOR SERVICES (INDIA) FAMILY PENSIONS (UNTRANSFERRED) RULES, 1939. DATED DECEMBER 30, 1939.

I, Lawrence John Lumley, Marquess of Zetland, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in virtue of the powers conferred by Section 273 of the Government of India Act, 1935, hereby make, with the concurrence of my Advisers, the following Rules, namely:—

Section I—General.

1. These Rules may be called the Superior Services (India) Family Pensions (Untransferred) Rules, 1939.

2. The sums contributed or paid as hereinafter prescribed shall be credited to the Revenues of the Central Government and said Government shall pay out of those Revenues all pensions, benefits and other outgoings as provided in these Rules.

Section II—Rules relating to Contributions and Benefits (Compulsory Contributions).

3. The Rules in this Section apply to every person who being on 31st March, 1937, a subscriber or a beneficiary under Section II of the Superior Services (India) Family Pension Fund Rules, then in force, made objection, under the provisions of Section 19 of the Government of India (Family Pension Funds) Order, 1936, to the vesting in Commissioners of his or her interest in the Fund

4. Every subscriber to whom this Section of the Rules applies (hereinafter referred to as a compulsory subscriber) shall make the monthly contributions* prescribed in the First Schedule, and the Secretary of State may order that such contributions shall be deducted from his pay or pension at the time of issue†. If at any time a subscriber is not in receipt of pay he shall not thereby be relieved of the obligation to pay the contributions due from him,‡ but the Secretary of State may at his discretion permit recovery of subscription due over a prolonged period of leave on medical certificate or of extraordinary leave without pay to be postponed until the expiration of such leave.

5. Except as provided in Rules 6, 7 and 8, contributions under Rule 4 shall cease on the expiration of 25 years from the date from which they first became payable, or, should the subscriber retire on invalid pension before the expiration of such period, on the date of retirement. Any subscription remaining unrecovered under the terms of Rule 4 shall, however, be recoverable from such invalid pension.

6. A compulsory subscriber who is dismissed from the service shall thereupon cease to be a subscriber, and his family shall cease to be entitled to any benefits under these Rules, and the subscriber shall not be entitled to any refund of contributions.

7.—(1) A compulsory subscriber who resigns or is removed from the service or who retires without being entitled to a pension shall thereupon cease to be a subscriber and his dependants shall cease to be entitled to any benefits under these Rules, but the subscriber may be granted a lump sum, the amount of which shall be fixed in each case by the Secretary of State, whose decision shall be final; and it shall be open to the Secretary of State before deciding upon the amount, if any, of such lump sum, to require medical evidence, in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule, of the health of all or any of the dependants of the subscriber.

(2) A compulsory subscriber who retires from the service on a compensation pension may elect, within three months of the date of retirement, to discontinue subscription under these Rules with effect from the date of his letter signifying such election; his dependants shall thereupon cease to be entitled to any benefits under these Rules, but the subscriber may be granted a lump sum on the terms and conditions set forth in the preceding sub-rule.

8.—(1) A compulsory subscriber who retires with a pension under the India Premature Retirement Rules or the Burma Premature Retirement Rules may adopt, at his option, one of the following methods of retaining for his wife and children benefits under these Rules, namely:—

(a) He may cease to make any contributions under the Rules, and shall then retain only the right to a proportion of the contingent benefits under the Rules for his wife and children existing on the date of retirement, and for any children subsequently born to that wife. This proportion shall be equal to the completed number of years during which he has subscribed divided by 25.

(b) He may continue until the expiration of 25 years from the date on which he became a subscriber to make contributions under the rules at the rates which would have been payable by him from time to time had he remained in the service. In that case he shall retain the full benefits admissible under the Rules as if he had remained in the service:

(2) In the event of an officer failing to notify within three months of the date of his retirement the method selected by him, he shall be deemed to have selected the first of the methods specified in the foregoing sub-rule.

*These contributions are fixed in sterling and when recovered or paid in India or Burma are convertible into rupees at the current rate of exchange.

†Subscriptions may be substituted for payments to the General Provident Fund subject to the provisions of Rule 17 of the Rules of that Fund.

‡If a subscriber is not in receipt of pay from a Government in India or the Government of Burma, he should arrange to pay the contributions due from him, either by cash or by cheque to the Accountant-General, India Office, to the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, or to the Accountant-General, Burma.

9.—(1) Every compulsory subscriber shall report his marriage, in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule, within one month of the date thereof.

(2) Every compulsory subscriber shall report in the form prescribed in the Third Schedule, within one month of its occurrence, the birth of every child born alive in wedlock.

(3) The Secretary of State may at his discretion declare a widow or child whose marriage or birth was not reported in accordance with these Rules ineligible for benefit.

(4) Every subscriber shall report within one month of its occurrence the death of any dependant eligible for benefit under these Rules.*

10.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Rules 6, 7, 8 and 9 (3) the widow of a deceased compulsory subscriber and all children born to him in wedlock shall be entitled to the benefits specified in the Fourth Schedule.

(2) A beneficiary to whom these rules apply shall be entitled to the benefits specified in the Fourth Schedule.

11.—(1) The pension† of a widow under these Rules shall continue in full during widowhood. It shall cease on her remarriage, but if she again become a widow she shall be entitled to revert to full pension as widow of her first husband, and, should her last husband have been a subscriber, to draw in addition pension as his widow.

(2) The pension† of a male orphan shall be payable until he attains the age of 21:

Provided that in any case where it is shown that a male orphan on attaining the age of 21 years is by reason of mental or physical infirmity incapable of earning a livelihood, the Secretary of State may at his discretion permit such male orphan to continue to draw beyond that age a pension of amount not exceeding that of which he is then in receipt under this Section of these Rules.

Provided further that, if a male orphan shall be over the age of 21 on the date of his father's death, and if it shall be shown that by reason of mental or physical infirmity he was not at the age of 21 and has not at any subsequent period been capable of earning a livelihood, the Secretary of State may at his discretion grant to him a pension of amount not exceeding that laid down in the Fourth Schedule of these Rules for sons over 12 years of age.

(3) The pension† of a female orphan shall be payable until the date of her marriage and shall not revive upon widowhood.

12. (1) A posthumous child of a compulsory subscriber by marriage duly reported in accordance with Rule 9 (1) shall be entitled to pension*.

(2) No child shall be entitled to benefit under this Rule whose birth is not reported within 12 months of the occurrence.

13. On the termination of the marriage of a compulsory subscriber by divorce or annulment, the wife of the marriage so terminated shall be entitled to no benefit under these Rules. The subscriber shall report the dissolution of the marriage within one month of the date thereof.

14. A compulsory subscriber may, at his option at any time during his service, make further provision for his family as a voluntary subscriber under Section III of these Rules.

---

*The reports required by these Rules should be made:—

(1) To the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, when the subscriber is drawing pay in India or in a Colony to which he has gone direct from India.

(2) To the Accountant-General, Burma, when the subscriber is drawing pay in Burma or in a Colony to which he has gone direct from Burma.

(3) To the Controller of Pension Funds, India Office, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, when the subscriber is drawing pay in England or in a Colony to which he has gone direct from England.

†Application for admission to pension should be made to the Controller of Pension Funds, India Office, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, or, if the applicant is in India or Burma, to the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, New Delhi, or to the Accountant-General, Burma, as the case may be.

Section III—Rules relating to Contributions and Benefits (Voluntary Contributions).

15. The Rules in this Section apply—

(a) to every compulsory subscriber as aforesaid who avails himself of the provisions of Rule 14, and

(b) to every person who being on 31st March, 1937, a subscriber or a beneficiary under Section III of the Superior Services (India) Family Pension Fund Rules then in force, made objection, under the provisions of Section 19 of the Government of India (Family Pension Funds) Order, 1936, to the vesting in Commissioners of his or her interest in the Fund.

16. Any beneficiary as aforesaid shall be entitled to an annuity at the rate for which payment was made on his or her behalf.

17.—(1) Any officer to whom these Rules apply may at any time, subject to the conditions laid down in these Rules, provide for the payment of an annuity after his death to his wife and children or any of them or may increase any such provisions previously made.

(2) The total annuity secured to any one dependant including any annuity payable under the Rules of Section II, shall not unless the Secretary of State in any particular case otherwise determines exceed the following:—

To a wife ...	300
To a child over the age of 12 ..	100
To a child from age 6 to age 12 .	75
To a child from birth to age 6 ..	50

(3) Premiums shall be at the rates set out in the Sixth Schedule to these Rules but a subscriber may, at his option, if he will be under the age of 50 years on his next birthday, elect to make his contributions in whole or in part by means of monthly subscriptions* actuarially equivalent to those premiums.

18. Every officer applying to subscribe or to increase his contributions under this Section whether in respect of a dependant for whom he has already made provision under these Rules or of a dependant not provided for shall produce medical evidence as to the state of his health in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule.

Liability for contingent pension under this Section shall commence—

(a) in the case of pensions paid for by single premium, from the date on which, after acceptance of the application, the single premium is paid;

(b) in the case of pensions paid for by monthly contributions, from the date of the letter notifying the acceptance of the application to subscribe, from which date contributions shall be payable.†

Notification of acceptance shall be given in England by the Controller of Pension Funds, India Office, in India by the Accountant-General, Central Revenues, and in Burma by the Accountant-General.

Single premiums shall ordinarily be calculated according to the ages of the parties at the date of payment, but they may, at the option of the subscriber, be calculated according to the ages at the date of application and shall then be regarded, for the purposes of Rule 23 as due on that date.

Monthly contributions shall ordinarily be payable from the date of acceptance at the rate appropriate to the ages of the parties on that date; but they may; at the option of the subscriber, be recovered with effect from the date of application at the rate appropriate to the ages on that date.

*Rates of monthly subscription will be supplied on application to the Controller of Pension Funds, India Office.

†These contributions are fixed in sterling and when recovered or paid in India or Burma are convertible into rupees at the current rate of exchange. Subscriptions may be substituted for payments to the General Provident Fund, subject to the provisions of Rule 17 of the Rules of that Fund.

19. Contributions paid under this Section of the Rules confer a claim to benefit only on the particular dependant on whose behalf they are paid. The right to pension of a wife, subject to the provisions of Rules 20 and 21 shall not be affected by reason of the termination of her marriage by divorce or annulment.

20. A subscriber whose contributions under this Section are in arrear for a period greater than three months shall thereby forfeit all his past payments, and his dependants shall lose all claim to benefits, under this Section:

Provided that the Secretary of State may permit resumption of contributions on such terms as he shall in each case decide.

Provided further that the Secretary of State may at his discretion permit recovery of subscription due over a prolonged period of leave on medical certificate, or of extraordinary leave without pay, to be postponed until the expiration of such leave.

21.—(1) A subscriber may at any time discontinue or reduce any monthly contributions payable by him under the Rules of this Section, in which case the dependants for whom the contributions so discontinued or reduced were paid shall be entitled, after his death, to modified pensions,* the amount of which shall be decided in each case by the Secretary of State, whose decision shall be final.

(2) A subscriber may at any time, on giving not less than one month's notice in writing, reduce or cancel the provision made for his wife or children under the Rules of this Section and may thereupon be granted a refund equivalent to the net liability of which the Fund is so relieved: but the Secretary of State may require medical evidence of the health of each dependant in respect of whom a refund† is payable in the form prescribed in the Fifth Schedule.

The amount of the refund shall be fixed in each case by the Secretary of State and his decision shall be final.

22. A subscriber may at any time commute any level monthly contributions payable by him under the Rules of this Section.‡

Section IV- Rules relating to Contributions and Benefits (General).

23. Interest at the rate of 4 per cent. shall be charged on contributions remaining unpaid for more than one month from the date on which they become due.

24. Any payment due at a subscriber's death shall be deducted, without any addition for interest beyond the date of death, from the pensions due to his dependants in four quarterly instalments, or, if the sum due is more than half the annual amount of the pensions, in such number of quarterly instalments as the Secretary of State may direct.

25.—(1) The Secretary of State may at his discretion permit a portion of the pension of a male orphan who has reached the age of 16 years to be commuted with a view to the proceeds being applied to the pensioner's advancement in life.

(2) The pension of a minor orphan shall be paid to his or her mother or other duly appointed or recognised guardian.

*A dependant, the contribution on whose behalf has been wholly discontinued, will not necessarily remain entitled under this Rule to any pension. For instance, no pension will normally be payable in these circumstances in the case of children whose pensions would have ceased at age 21 or of daughters approaching marriageable age.

†No refund will be payable in the case of (a) children whose pensions would cease at age 21, except where the contracts have been effected by payment of single premiums, and (b) daughters approaching marriageable age.

‡The commuted value of any subscription will be supplied on application being made to the Controller of Pension Funds, India Office.

26. Declarations shall be furnished quarterly as to the continued widowhood, spinsterhood or survival of pensioners as the case may be.*

27. A pension payable under these Rules shall enure for the benefit of the pensioner only and no transfer, assignment or other alienation thereof shall be recognised.

28.—(1) Pensions and gratuities under these Rules shall be payable in London in sterling.† Pensioners residing in India or Burma may, however, at their option, receive payment‡ there in rupees at such rate of exchange as the Secretary of State may prescribe.

(2) A pensioner residing in India or Burma who has elected to receive payment there shall not subsequently be permitted to change the place of payment except at the commencement of an official year.

29. Reference in these Rules to the Secretary of State shall be construed as references to the Secretary of State acting with the concurrence of his advisers in accordance with the provisions of Section 261 of the Government of India Act, 1935.

30. The Superior Services (India) Family Pension Fund (Untransferred Section) Provisional Rules previously in force are hereby repealed.

3. All steel of the classes mentioned above imported since the 1st of January, 1940, will be debited against the quota for the current year. In the case of orders already placed or pending, arrangements will be made for compliance with them having due regard to their relative importance. But no further orders or demands will hereafter be accepted in the United Kingdom unless supported by a Quota Recommendation Certificate issued by the Department of Supply in India.

4. Detailed instructions regarding applications for the grant of Quota Recommendation Certificates, and the procedure to be followed by firms who have orders placed in, and/or demands pending on the United Kingdom, will be obtainable from the Department of Supply on or after the 1st of April, 1940.

PART V

Acts of the Indian Legislature assented to by the Governor-General and Ordinances promulgated by the Governor-General.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Department.

The following Act of the Indian Legislature received the assent of the Governor General on the 11th March, 1940, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. X OF 1940.

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Arbitration.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to arbitration in British India;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTORY.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Arbitration Act, 1940.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force on the 1st day of July, 1940.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "arbitration agreement" means a written agreement to submit present or future differences to arbitration, whether an arbitrator is named therein or not;

(b) "award" means an arbitration award;

(c) "Court" means a Civil Court having jurisdiction to decide the questions forming the subject-matter of the reference if the same had been the subject-matter of a suit, but does not, except for the purpose of arbitration proceedings under section 21, include a Small Cause Court;

(d) "legal representative" means a person who in law represents the estate of a deceased person, and includes any person who intermeddles with the estate of the deceased, and, where a party acts in a representative character, the person on whom the estate devolves on the death of the party so acting;

(e) "reference" means a reference to arbitration.

CHAPTER II.

ARBITRATION WITHOUT INTERVENTION OF A COURT.

Provisions implied in arbitration agreement.

3. An arbitration agreement, unless a different intention is expressed therein, shall be deemed to include the provisions set out in the First Schedule in so far as they are applicable to the reference.

Agreement that arbitrators be appointed by third party.

4. The parties to an arbitration agreement may agree that any reference thereunder shall be to an arbitrator or arbitrators to be appointed by a person designated in the agreement either by name or as the holder for the time being of any office or appointment.

Authority of appointed arbitrator or umpire irrevocable except by leave of Court.

5. The authority of an appointed arbitrator or umpire shall not be revocable except with the leave of the Court, unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement.

Arbitration agreement not to be discharged by death of party thereto.

6. (1) An arbitration agreement shall not be discharged by the death of any party thereto, either as respects the deceased or any other party, but shall in such event be enforceable by or against the legal representative of the deceased.

(2) The authority of an arbitrator shall not be revoked by the death of any party by whom he was appointed.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the operation of any law by virtue of which any right of action is extinguished by the death of a person.

Provisions in case of insolvency.

7. (1) Where it is provided by a term in a contract to which an insolvent is a party that any differences arising thereout or in connection therewith shall be referred to arbitration, the said term shall, if the receiver adopts the contract, be enforceable by or against him so far as it relates to any such differences.

(2) Where a person who has been adjudged an insolvent had, before the commencement of the insolvency proceedings, become a party to an arbitration agreement, and any matter to which the agreement applies is required to be determined in connection with, or for the purposes of, the insolvency proceedings, then, if the case is one to which sub-section (1) does not apply, any other party to the agreement or the receiver may apply to the Court having jurisdiction in the insolvency proceedings for an order directing that the matter in question shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the agreement, and the Court may, if it is of opinion that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, the matter ought to be determined by arbitration, make an order accordingly.

(3) In this section the expression "receiver" includes an Official Assignee.

Power of Court to appoint arbitrator or umpire.

8. (1) In any of the following cases—

(a) where an arbitration agreement provides that the reference shall be to one or more arbitrators to be appointed by consent of the parties, and all the parties do not, after differences have arisen, concur in the appointment or appointments; or

(b) if any appointed arbitrator or umpire neglects or refuses to act, or is incapable of acting, or dies, and the arbitration agreement does not show that it was intended that the vacancy should not be supplied, and the parties or the arbitrators, as the case may be, do not supply the vacancy; or any party may serve the other parties or the arbitrators, as the case may be, with a written notice to concur in the appointment or appointments or in supplying the vacancy.

(2) If the appointment is not made within fifteen clear days after the service of the said notice, the Court may, on the application of the party who gave the notice and after giving the other parties an opportunity of being heard, appoint an arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, as the case may be, who shall have like power to act in the reference and to make an award as if he or they had been appointed by consent of all parties.

Power to party to appoint new arbitrator or, in certain cases, a sole arbitrator.

9. Where an arbitration agreement provides that a reference shall be to two arbitrators, one to be appointed by each party, then, unless a different intention is expressed in the agreement,—

(a) if either of the appointed arbitrators neglects or refuses to act, or is incapable of acting, or dies, the party who appointed him may appoint a new arbitrator in his place;

(b) if one party fails to appoint an arbitrator, either originally or by way of substitution as aforesaid, for fifteen clear days after the service by the other party of a notice in writing to make the appointment, such other party having appointed his arbitrator before giving the notice, the party who has appointed an arbitrator may appoint that arbitrator to act as sole arbitrator in the reference, and his award shall be binding on both parties as if he had been appointed by consent:

Provided that the Court may set aside any appointment as sole arbitrator made under clause (b) and either, on sufficient cause being shown, allow further time to the defaulting party to appoint an arbitrator or pass such other order as it thinks it.

Explanation.—The fact that an arbitrator or umpire, after a request by either party to enter on and proceed with the reference, does not within one month comply with the request may constitute a neglect or refusal to act within the meaning of section 8 and this section.

Provisions as to appointment of three or more arbitrators.

10. (1) Where an arbitration agreement provides that a reference shall be to three arbitrators, one to be appointed by each party and the third by the two appointed arbitrators, the agreement shall have effect as if it provided for the appointment of an umpire, and not for the appointment of a third arbitrator, by the two arbitrators appointed by the parties.

(2) Where an arbitration agreement provides that a reference shall be to three arbitrators to be appointed otherwise than as mentioned in sub-section (1), the award of the majority shall, unless the arbitration agreement otherwise provides, prevail.

(3) Where an arbitration agreement provides for the appointment of more arbitrators than three, the award of the majority, or if the arbitrators are equally divided in their opinions, the award of the umpire shall, unless the arbitration agreement otherwise provides, prevail.

Power to Court to remove arbitrators or umpire in certain circumstances.

11. (1) The Court may, on the application of any party to a reference, remove an arbitrator or umpire who fails to use all reasonable dispatch in entering on and proceeding with the reference and making an award.

(2) The Court may remove an arbitrator or umpire who has misconducted himself or the proceedings.

(3) Where an arbitrator or umpire is removed under this section, he shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration in respect of his services.

(4) For the purposes of this section the expression "proceeding with the reference" includes, in a case where reference to the umpire becomes necessary, giving notice of that fact to the parties and to the umpire.

Power of Court where arbitrator is removed or his authority revoked.

12. (1) Where the Court removes an umpire who has not entered on the reference or one or more arbitrators (not being all the arbitrators), the Court may, on the application of any party to the arbitration agreement, appoint persons to fill the vacancies.

(2) Where the authority of an arbitrator or arbitrators or an umpire is revoked by leave of the Court, or where the Court removes an umpire who has entered on the reference or a sole arbitrator or all the arbitrators, the Court may, on the application of any party to the arbitration agreement, either—

(a) appoint a person to act as sole arbitrator in the place of the person or persons displaced, or

(b) order that the arbitration agreement shall cease to have effect with respect to the difference referred.

(3) A person appointed under this section as an arbitrator or umpire shall have the like power to act in the reference and to make an award as if he had been appointed in accordance with the arbitration agreement.

Powers of arbitrator.

13. The arbitrators or umpire shall, unless a different intention is expressed in the agreement, have power to—

(a) administer oath to the parties and witnesses appearing;

(b) state a special case for the opinion of the Court on any question of law involved, or state the award, wholly or in part, in the form of a special case of such question for the opinion of the Court;

(c) make the award conditional or in the alternative;

(d) correct in an award any clerical mistake or error arising from any accidental slip or omission;

(e) administer to any party to the arbitration such interrogatories as may, in the opinion of the arbitrators or umpire, be necessary.

Award to be signed and filed.

14. (1) When the arbitrators or umpire have made their award, they shall sign it and shall give notice in writing to the parties of the making and signing thereof and of the amount of fees and charges payable in respect of the arbitration and award.

(2) The arbitrators or umpire shall, at the request of any party to the arbitration agreement or any person claiming under such party or if so directed by the Court and upon payment of the fees and charges due in respect of the arbitration and award and of the costs and charges on filing the award, cause the award or a signed copy of it, together with any depositions and documents which may have been taken and proved before them, to be filed in Court, and the Court shall thereupon give notice to the parties of the filing of the award.

(3) Where the arbitrators or umpire state a special case under clause (b) of section 13, the Court, after giving notice to the parties and hearing them, shall pronounce its opinion thereon and such opinion shall be added to, and shall form part of, the award.

Power of Court to modify award

15. The Court may by order modify or correct an award—

(a) where it appears that a part of the award is upon a matter not referred to arbitration and such part can be separated from the other part and does not affect the decision on the matter referred; or

(b) where the award is imperfect in form, or contains any obvious error which can be amended without affecting such decision; or

(c) where the award contains a clerical mistake or an error arising from an accidental slip or omission.

Power to remit award.

16. (1) The Court may from time to time remit the award or any matter referred to arbitration to the arbitrators or umpire for reconsideration upon such terms as it thinks fit—

(a) where the award has left undetermined any of the matter referred to arbitration, or where it determines any matter not referred to arbitration and such matter cannot be separated without affecting the determination of the matters referred; or

(b) where the award is so indefinite as to be incapable of execution; or

(c) where an objection to the legality of the award is apparent upon the face of it.

(2) Where an award is remitted under sub-section (1) the Court shall fix the time within which the arbitrator or umpire shall submit his decision to the Court:

Provided that any time so fixed may be extended by subsequent order of the Court.

(3) An award remitted under sub-section (1) shall become void on the failure of the arbitrator or umpire to reconsider it and submit his decision within the time fixed.

Judgment in terms of award.

17. Where the Court sees no cause to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration for reconsideration or to set aside the award, the Court shall, after the time for making an application to set aside the award has expired, or such application having been made, after refusing it, proceed to pronounce judgment according to the award, and upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow, and no appeal shall lie from such decree except on the ground that it is in excess of, or not otherwise in accordance with, the award.

Power of Court to pass interim orders.

18. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 17, at any time after the filing of the award, whether notice of the filing has been served or not, upon being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that a party has taken or is about to take steps to defeat, delay or obstruct the execution of any decree that may be passed upon the award, or that speedy execution of the award is just and necessary, the Court may pass such interim orders as it deems necessary.

(2) Any person against whom such interim orders have been passed may show cause against such orders, and the Court, after hearing the parties, may pass such further orders as it deems necessary and just.

Power to supersede arbitration when award becomes void or is set aside.

19. Where an award has become void under subsection (3) of section 16 or has been set aside, the Court may by order supersede the reference and shall thereupon order that the arbitration agreement shall cease to have effect with respect to the difference referred.

CHAPTER III.

ARBITRATION WITH INTERVENTION OF A COURT WHERE THERE IS NO SUIT PENDING.

Application to file in Court arbitration agreement.

20. (1) Where any persons have entered into an arbitration agreement before the institution of any suit with respect to the subject-matter of the agreement or any part of it, and where a difference has arisen to which the agreement applies, they or any of them, instead of proceeding under Chapter II, may apply to a Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which the agreement relates, that the agreement be filed in Court.

(2) The application shall be in writing and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between one or more of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiff or plaintiffs and the remainder as defendant or defendants, if the application has been presented by all the parties, or, if otherwise, between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants.

(3) On such application being made, the Court shall direct notice thereof to be given to all parties to the agreement other than the applicants, requiring them to show cause within the time specified in the notice why the agreement should not be filed.

(4) Where no sufficient cause is shown, the Court shall order the agreement to be filed, and shall make an order of reference to the arbitrator appointed by the parties, whether in the agreement or otherwise, or, where the parties cannot agree upon an arbitrator, to an arbitrator appointed by the Court.

(5) Thereafter the arbitration shall proceed in accordance with, and shall be governed by, the other provisions of this Act so far as they can be made applicable.

CHAPTER IV.

ARBITRATION IN SUITS.

Parties to suit may apply for order of reference

21. Where in any suit all the parties interested agree that any matter in difference between them in the suit shall be referred to arbitration, they may at any time before judgment is pronounced apply in writing to the Court for an order of reference.

Appointment of arbitrator.

22. The arbitrator shall be appointed in such manner as may be agreed upon between the parties.

Order of reference.

23. (1) The Court shall, by order, refer to the arbitrator the matter in difference which he is required to determine, and shall in the order specify such time as it thinks reasonable for the making of the award.

(2) Where a matter is referred to arbitration, the Court shall not, save in the manner and to the extent provided in this Act, deal with such matter in the suit.

Reference to arbitration by some of the parties.

24. Where some only of the parties to a suit apply to have the matters in difference between them referred to arbitration in accordance with, and in the manner provided by, section 21, the Court may, if it thinks fit, so refer such matters to arbitration (provided that the same can be separated from the rest of the subject-matter of the suit) in the manner provided in that section, but the suit shall continue so far as it relates to the parties who have not joined in the said application and to matters not contained in the said reference as if no such application had been made, and an award made in pursuance of such a reference shall be binding only on the parties who have joined in the application.

Provisions applicable to arbitrations under this Chapter.

25. The provisions of the other Chapters shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to arbitrations under this Chapter:

Provided that the Court may, in any of the circumstances mentioned in sections 8, 10, 11 and 12, instead of filling up the vacancies or making the appointments, make an order superseding the arbitration and proceed with the suit, and where the Court makes an order superseding the arbitration under section 19, it shall proceed with the suit.

CHAPTER V.

GENERAL.

Application of Chapter.

26. Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of this Chapter shall apply to all arbitrations.

Power of arbitrators to make an interim award.

27. (1) Unlesss a different intention appears in the arbitration agreement, the arbitrators or umpire may, if they think fit, make an interim award.

(2) All references in this Act to an award shall include references to an interim award made under sub-section (1).

Power to Court only to enlarge time for making award.

28. (1) The Court may, if it thinks fit, whether the time for making the award has expired or not and whether the award has been made or not, enlarge from time to time the time for making the award.

(2) Any provision in an arbitration agreement whereby the arbitrators or umpire may, except with the consent of all the parties to the agreement, enlarge the time for making the award, shall be void and of no effect.

Interest on award.

29. Where and in so far as an award is for the payment of money the Court may in the decree order interest, from the date of the decree at such rate as the Court deems reasonable, to be paid on the principal sum as adjudged by the award and confirmed by the decree.

Grounds for setting aside award.

30. An award shall not be set aside except on one or more of the following grounds, namely:—

(a) that an arbitrator or umpire has misconducted himself or the proceedings;

(b) that an award has been made after the issue of an order by the Court superseding the arbitration or after arbitration proceedings have become invalid under section 35;

(c) that an award has been improperly procured or is otherwise invalid.

Jurisdiction.

31. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an award may be filed in any Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which the reference relates.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force and save as otherwise provided in this Act, all questions regarding the validity, effect or existence of an award or an arbitration agreement between the parties to the agreement or persons claiming under them shall be decided by the Court in which the award under the agreement has been, or may be, filed, and by no other Court.

(3) All applications regarding the conduct of arbitration proceedings or otherwise arising out of such proceedings shall be made to the Court where the award has been, or may be, filed, and to no other Court.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, where in any reference any application under this Act has been made in a Court competent to entertain it, that Court alone shall have jurisdiction over the arbitration proceedings and all subsequent applications arising out of that reference and the arbitration proceedings shall be made in that Court and in no other Court.

Bar to suits contesting arbitration agreement or award.

32. Notwithstanding any law for the time being in force, no suit shall lie on any ground whatsoever for a decision upon the existence, effect or validity of an arbitration agreement or award, nor shall any arbitration agreement or award be set aside, amended, modified or in any way affected otherwise than as provided in this Act.

Arbitration agreement or award to be contested by application.

33. Any party to an arbitration agreement or any person claiming under him desiring to challenge the existence or validity of an arbitration agreement or an award or to have the effect of either determined shall apply to the Court and the Court shall decide the question on affidavits:

Provided that where the Court deems it just and expedient, it may set down the application for hearing on other evidence also, and it may pass such orders for discovery and particulars as it may do in a suit.

Power to stay legal proceedings where there is an arbitration agreement.

34. Where any party to an arbitration agreement or any person claiming under him commences any legal proceedings against any other party to the agreement or any person claiming under him in respect of any matter agreed to be referred, any party to such legal proceedings may, at any time before filing a written statement or taking any other steps in the proceedings, apply to the judicial authority before which the proceedings are pending to stay the proceedings; and if satisfied that there is no sufficient reason why the matter should not be referred in accordance with the arbitration agreement and that the applicant was, at the time when the proceedings were commenced, and still remains, ready and willing to do all things necessary to the proper conduct of the arbitration, such authority may make an order staying the proceedings.

Effect of legal proceedings on arbitration.

35. (1) No reference nor award shall be rendered invalid by reason only of the commencement of legal proceedings upon the subject-matter of the reference, but when legal proceedings upon the whole of the subject-matter of the reference have been commenced between all the parties to the reference and a notice thereof has been given to the arbitrators or umpire, all further proceedings in a pending reference shall, unless a stay of proceedings is granted under section 34, be invalid.

(2) In this section the expression "parties to the reference" includes any persons claiming under any of the parties and litigating under the same title.

Power of Court where arbitration agreement is ordered not to apply to a particular difference, to order that a provision making an award a condition precedent to an action shall not apply to such difference.

36. Where it is provided (whether in the arbitration agreement or otherwise) that an award under an arbitration agreement shall be a condition precedent to the bringing of an action with respect to any matter to which the agreement applies, the Court, if it orders (whether under this Act or any other law) that the agreement shall cease to have effect as regards any particular difference, may further order that the said provision shall also cease to have effect as regards that difference.

Limitations.

37. (1) All the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, shall apply to arbitrations as they apply to proceedings in Court. IX of 1908.

(2) Notwithstanding any term in an arbitration agreement to the effect that no cause of action shall accrue in respect of any matter required by the agreement to be referred until an award is made under the agreement, a cause of action shall, for the purpose of limitation, be deemed to have accrued in respect of any such matter at the time when it would have accrued but for that term in the agreement.

(3) For the purposes of this section and of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, an arbitration shall be deemed to be commenced when one party to the arbitration agreement serves on the other parties thereto a notice requiring the appointment of an arbitrator, or where the arbitration agreement provides that the reference shall be to a person named or designated in the agreement, requiring that the difference be submitted to the person so named or designated.

(4) Where the terms of an agreement to refer future differences to arbitration provide that any claims to which the agreement applies shall be barred unless notice to appoint an arbitrator is given or an arbitrator is appointed or some other step to commence arbitration proceedings is taken within a time fixed by the agreement, and a difference arises to which the agreement applies, the Court, if it is of opinion that in the circumstances of the case undue hardship would otherwise be caused, and notwithstanding that the time so fixed has expired, may on such terms, if any, as the justice of the case may require, extend the time for such period as it thinks proper.

(5) Where the Court orders that an award be set aside or orders, after the commencement of an arbitration, that the arbitration agreement shall cease to have effect with respect to the difference referred, the period between the commencement of the arbitration and the date of the order of the Court shall be excluded in computing the time prescribed by the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, for the commencement of the proceedings (including arbitration) with respect to the difference referred. IX of 1908.

Disputes as to arbitrator's remuneration or costs.

38. (1) If in any case an arbitrator or umpire refuses to deliver his award except on payment of the fees demanded by him, the Court may, on an application in this behalf, order that the arbitrator or umpire shall deliver the award to the applicant on payment into Court by the applicant of the fees demanded, and shall, after such inquiry, if any, as it thinks fit, further order that out of the money so paid into Court there shall be paid to the arbitrator or umpire by way of fees such sum as the Court may consider reasonable and that the balance of the money, if any, shall be refunded to the applicant.

(2) An application under sub-section (1) may be made by any party to the reference unless the fees demanded have been fixed by written agreement between him and the arbitrator or umpire, and the arbitrator or umpire shall be entitled to appear and be heard on any such application.

(3) The Court may make such orders as it thinks fit respecting the costs of an arbitration where any question arises respecting such costs and the award contains no sufficient provision concerning them.

CHAPTER VI.

APPEALS.

Appealable orders.

39. (1) An appeal shall lie from the following orders passed under this Act (and from no other) to the Court authorised by law to hear appeals from original decrees of the Court passing the order:—

An order—

(i) superseding an arbitration;

(ii) on an award stated in the form of a special case;

(iii) modifying or correcting an award;

Service of notice by party or arbitrator.

42. Any notice required by this Act to be served otherwise than through the Court by a party to an arbitration agreement or by an arbitrator or umpire shall be served in the manner provided in the arbitration agreement, or if there is no such provision, either—

(a) by delivering it to the person on whom it is to be served, or

(b) by sending it by post in a letter addressed to that person at his usual or last known place of abode or business in British India and registered under Chapter VI of the Indian Post Office Act, 1898. VI of 1898.

Power of Court to issue processes for appearance before arbitrator.

43. (1) The Court shall issue the same processes to the parties and witnesses whom the arbitrator or umpire desires to examine as the Court may issue in suits tried before it.

(2) Persons failing to attend in accordance with such process, or making any other default, or refusing to give their evidence, or guilty of any contempt to the arbitrator or umpire during the investigation of the reference, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties and punishments by order of the Court on the representation of the arbitrator or umpire as they would incur for the like offences in suits tried before the Court.

Application of Act to statutory arbitrations.

46. The provisions of this Act, except sub-section (1) of section 6 and sections 7, 12 and 37, shall apply to every arbitration under any other enactment for the time being in force, as if the arbitration were pursuant to an arbitration agreement and as if that other enactment were an arbitration agreement, except in so far as this Act is inconsistent with that other enactment or with any rules made thereunder.

Act to apply to all arbitrations.

47. Subject to the provisions of section 46, and save in so far as is otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, the provisions of this Act shall apply to all arbitrations and to all proceedings thereunder:

Provided that an arbitration award otherwise obtained may with the consent of all the parties interested be taken into consideration as a compromise or adjustment of a suit by any Court before which the suit is pending.

Saving for pending references.

48. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any reference pending at the commencement of this Act, to which the law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, notwithstanding any repeal effected by this Act, continue to apply.

"Provided that no such notification shall be issued unless the Central Government is satisfied that insurers constituted, incorporated or domiciled in British India are under the law or practice in such State or territory entitled therein to benefits corresponding to those conferred by the notification or to benefits which in the opinion of the Central Government are at least equivalent thereto."

Amendment of First Schedule, Act IV of 1938.

18. In Form A contained in Part II of the First Schedule to the said Act, in the first column, in the entry "Accident and Miscellaneous Insurance Business Account" the words "Accident and" shall be omitted.

Amendment of Third Schedule Act IV of 1938.

19. In the Third Schedule to the said Act—

(a) in Part I, in regulation 2 the words "accident and" and the words "including workmen's compensation and motor car insurance" shall be omitted;

(b) in Part II,—

(i) in note (a) appended to Form D, for the words "payable outside India" the words "ordinarily paid outside India" shall be substituted, and the following sentence shall be added, namely:—

"If any question arises whether any premiums are ordinarily paid outside India, the Superintendent of Insurance shall decide the question and his decision shall be final.";

(ii) in the heading to Form F, the words "Accident and" and the words "including Workmen's Compensation and Motor Car Insurance Business" shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The main object of this Bill is to amend the Insurance Act of 1938, as amended by the Insurance (Amendment) Act of 1939, in regard to the more pressing of several matters that have been brought to light in the first six months during which the Insurance Act has been in operation and in regard to which amendment is urgently required in order to remove flaws and administrative difficulties.

2. The principal amendments suggested in this Bill relate to an extension of the definition of "approved securities" designed to assist British Indian Companies to secure reciprocal concessions under section 116; to the clarification of the position in connection with the cancellation of registration certificates of insurers under section 3; to the removal of certain administrative difficulties arising out of the existing form of section 7 in regard to deposits; to the necessity for spreading the expiry dates of agents' licences under section 42 over the whole year; to the prevention of administrative difficulties which may arise unless it is clearly laid down that a Provident Society must be wound up before it can become an insurer under Part II; to provision for notice to be given to the Superintendent of Insurance by the Court in all matters affecting insurers; to provision for the period of one month during which rules under the Act must lie on the Table being spread over more than one session; and to the extension of the range of concessions that may be offered under section 116 in order to assist British Indian Companies to secure reciprocal concessions in other places.

3. Experience has also shown that the duties laid by the Act upon the Superintendent of Insurance personally are too numerous for him to cope with and an amendment is incorporated to enable him to delegate his authority.

4. In addition to the above points, a few defects of a technical nature are also dealt with.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—This amendment makes it possible for securities issued by the Governments of Indian States to be recognised as approved securities and is intended to help negotiations, in the interests of British Indian insurers, under section 116.

Clause 3.—The first amendment made by sub-clause (a) makes registration applicable to persons before they become insurers in the technical sense by commencing insurance business. The second removes doubts about the validity of policy contracts entered into after the expiry of the period of three months mentioned in section 3(1) by certain insurers who failed to obtain a certificate of registration in time either owing to the lateness of their application or because of the heavy congestion of work at the Office of the Superintendent of Insurance. Sub-clause (b) is intended to make it clear that Indian State subjects are included in the term "Indian nationals" for the purpose of section 3(2)(c) and 3(3) of the Act. Sub-clause (c) expands the list of cases in which the Superintendent of Insurance may cancel registration by specifying certain other circumstances in which an insurer ceases to carry on insurance business. Sub-clause (e) supplies detailed provisions covering the consequences of a cancellation of registration, including provision for the revival of registration in some cases and for the winding up of the insurer in others.

Clause 4.—The changes made by sub-clause (a) are aimed at rewording section 7(1) so as to accord more closely with the conditions actually prevailing and to correct some minor drafting blemishes. Sub-clause (b) clarifies sub-section (7) so as to make clear the original intention about the disposal of the deposits held immediately prior to 1st July, 1939. Sub-clause (d) substitutes more detailed provisions than at present exist regarding the replacement of securities constituting the deposit and for the conversion of these to cash and vice versa.

Clause 5.—The object of the change made is to harmonize the date here mentioned with the dates in sub-section (1) of section 28.

Clause 6.—The addition made secures that insurers shall furnish the particulars necessary to establish that they have complied with section 27 and reinforces the power of the Superintendent to insist on their doing so by a sanction.

Clause 7.—Sub-clause (a) inserts provision for the case in which the transfer is to a person who is not actually an insurer. Sub-clause (b) substitutes provisions giving in much clearer terms the actual requirements imposed by sub-section (3) of section 35.

Clause 8.—The provision added to section 36 gives a very necessary power to the Court to make orders as to the disposal of deposits when an amalgamation or a transfer is sanctioned.

Clause 9.—The object of the changes made is to secure that the work of renewing the large number of licences which have to be dealt with annually should be distributed throughout the year instead of being concentrated about a single date, viz., 31st March. For this purpose power is taken in the two provisos to "stagger" the dates at which existing licences fall to be renewed in future.

Clause 10.—Sections 65 and 66 of the Act have been recast with the object of clearly distinguishing provident societies from ordinary insurers, and avoiding the possibility that the same body could at one and the same time be subject as a provident society to Part III of the Act, and as an insurer to the other provisions of the Act. Existing section 66 has now in substance been incorporated in sub-section (1) and in clause (b) of sub-section (3) of the new section 65, and in the new section 66 a provident society is debarred from becoming an insurer. Sub-sections (4) and (5) of new section 65 provide for a definite determination of the question whether a particular body is or is not a provident society for the purposes of Part III of the Act.

Clauses 11 and 12.—The amendments are consequential.

Clause 13.—The amendment brings section 85 into accord with section 29, the corresponding provision relating to insurers.

Clause 14.—The new section inserted by this clause requires the Court to give the Superintendent of Insurance an opportunity of being heard before it passes certain orders.

Clause 15.—The first of the new sections inserted by this clause enables the Superintendent of Insurance to delegate his powers and duties while retaining powers of control and revision. The second provides that documents, e.g., licences, may be signed by a mechanical process.

Clause 16.—The amendments made by sub-clause (a) are consequential. That made by sub-clause (b) removes a practical difficulty. At present as the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 114 is interpreted the rules have to be laid on the table of each House for a month in one single session.

Clause 17.—The amendment made by sub-clause (a) extends the scope of the section to foreign countries as well as Indian States, while that made by sub-clause (b) widens the extent to which concessions can be made. A proviso has been added making it a condition precedent to the grant of any concession under the section that similar or equal privileges shall be open to British Indian insurers in the country to which the concession is extended.

Clause 18.—The amendments are consequential on the change made in section 7 (1)(d) of the Act.

Clause 19.—The expression "payable outside India" has been found to be ambiguous in practice. While substituting for it the words "ordinarily paid outside India", a provision has been added to enable doubts, if any, to be set at rest. The other amendments made by the clause are consequential on the change made in section 7(1)(d) of the Act.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 21st March, 1940:—*

L. A. BILL No. 24 OF 1940.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1934.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; XXXII of 1934.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Tariff (Second Amendment) Act, 1940.

Amendment of the First Schedule, Act XXXII of 1934. 2. In the First Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1934,— XXXII of 1934.

(a) in Items Nos. 10 (1), 10 (2) and 11 (1), in the last column, for the figure "1940" the figure "1941" shall be substituted;

(b) in Items Nos. 46, 46(1), 47, 47 (1), 48 and 48 (4), in the last column, for the figure "1940" the figure "1942" shall be substituted.

It is hereby declared that it is expedient in the public interest that the provisions of clause 2 of this Bill shall have immediate effect under the Provisional Collection of Taxes Act, 1931. XVI of 1931.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by sub-section (2) of section 67 of the Government of India Act, as saved from repeal by paragraph 12 of the Government of India (Commencement and Transitory Provisions) Order, 1936.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since the passing of the Indian Tariff (Amendment) Act, 1939 (I of 1939), and the Indian Tariff (Second Amendment) Act, 1939 (XVIII of 1939), the Government of India have maintained a careful watch on the statistical position of wheat and rice and they are satisfied that no change has yet taken place to justify the protective duties on wheat, wheat flour and broken rice being allowed to lapse at the end of March, 1940. The Bill, therefore, proposes to extend the existing import duties on those commodities for a further period of one year viz., up to the 31st March, 1941.

2. The protective duties on silk and certain manufactures of silk were also extended up to the 31st March, 1940, under the Indian Tariff (Second Amendment) Act, 1939 (XVIII of 1939). Thereafter the examination of the Tariff Board's Report regarding the grant of protection to the Sericultural Industry was taken in hand, but owing to war conditions the prices of silk and silk manufactures have advanced sufficiently to satisfy the recommendations of the majority of the Tariff Board and Government find it impossible in the present position of uncertainty to form any decision as to a long term policy. It is therefore proposed to continue the existing protective duties on silk and certain manufactures of silk for a further period of two years under this Bill.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th March, 1940:—

L. A. BILL No. 25 OF 1940.

A Bill further to amend the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; IV of 1939.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1940.

Amendment of section 48, Act IV of 1939.

2. In section 48 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939,— IV of 1939.

(a) for clauses (a) and (b) the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(a) limit the number of stage carriages or stage carriages of any specified type for which stage carriage permits may be granted in the region or in any specified area or on any specified route within the region;":

(b) clauses (c), (d) and (e) shall be re-lettered as clauses (b), (c) and (d), respectively;

(c) in clause (d) as so re-lettered, after sub-clause (ii) the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(iia) that the stage carriage or stage carriages shall be used only on specified routes or in a specified area;".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Certain differences in the drafting of section 48 and section 56 of the Motor Vehicles Act do not reflect any differences in intention; these have given rise to doubt regarding the interpretation of section 48, which is reproduced below. The Bill seeks to amend that section so as to remove the doubt.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2(a)—The clause amended hereby enables rules to be made for the prevention of inter alia the spreading of reports or the prosecution of purposes likely to prejudice His Majesty's relations with foreign powers. The case for extending the scope of the rule-making power in the manner proposed is clear.

Clause 2(b).—As all officers serving in a Chief Commissioner's Province are subordinate to the Central Government, sub-section (5) of section 2, as it now stands, has the anomalous and unintended effect of precluding a delegation by the Chief Commissioner to any officer serving in his Province.

Clause 3.—The object of this amendment is to render the benefits of the Indian Soldiers (Litigation) Act, 1925, admissible to members of Indian States Forces while serving in the conditions specified in the section under amendment.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd April 1940 :—

L. A. BILL No. 27 of 1940.

A Bill to amend the Indian Tea Control Act, 1938.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Tea Control Act, 1938, in the manner hereinafter appearing : it is hereby enacted as follows :— VIII of 1938.

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Tea Control (Amendment) Act, 19 .

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor-General gives his assent to it.

Amendment of section 14, Act VIII of 1938.

2. For sub-section (1) of section 14 of the Indian Tea Control Act, 1938, the following shall be substituted, namely :— VIII of 1938.

"14(1). Any tea estate or any subdivision of a tea estate to which an export quota was allotted under the Indian Tea Control Act, 1933, and any tea estate which the Central Government may within one year from the commencement of this Amendment Act authorise to apply for the allotment of an export quota under this Act, shall on application made to the Committee for the allotment of an export quota have the right, subject to the provisions of this Act, to receive an export quota. XXIV of 1933.

(2) All applications for authorisation under this section shall reach the Central Government within six months of the commencement of this Amendment Act.

(3) The owner of a tea estate praying for authorisation within the prescribed time limit, in whose case an export quota has been rejected on technical or other grounds shall have a right to appeal to the Central Government who shall have the power to reconsider the matter."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Second part of the section 14(1) of the Indian Tea Control Act, 1938, runs thus—'any Tea Estate which the Central Government may within one year from the commencement of this Act authorise to apply for the allotment of export quota under this Act.....' etc.

This Tea Control Act came into force on 31st March, 1938 and the prescribed time limit of one year as provided for in section 14(1) of the Act was over on the 31st March, 1939. Many tea estates in India have been allotted the export right under section 14(1), after the Act came into force, and they have all been producing tea by now. Many estates in Madras, Hill Tipperah, Surma Valley and in Chittagong division on the other hand are not being able to produce any tea as the Central Government refused permission in some cases and as the prescribed time limit was over before the Central Government could authorise in many other cases. Many of these tea estates could have produced tea for the export market if their claims were favourably considered by the Government.

The language of section 14(1) of the Tea Control Act is rather vague. There is no specific direction as to the time limit within which the Central Government was to be moved for the necessary authorisation, as a result of which, many tea estates made their applications for authorisation only a month or two before 31st March, 1939, and the time limit was over before the permission could be granted to these tea estates. We maintain, therefore, that the vagueness of the language of section 14(1) is responsible for depriving these tea estates from their due share of the export quota.

The section has not provided for any reconsideration by the Central Government in cases of estates not getting the necessary authorisation. Wrong reports from Inspectors or other technical grounds have deprived many estates from getting the necessary permission. Provisions ought to have been made in the Act for reconsideration by the Government in such cases. So there is necessity for this Amendment Bill.
